The Marian Fathers of the Immaculate Conception

From Father Walter's desk...
 "Physical Healing-Spiritual Healing (How similar? How different?)"

Is it possible for someone to live with a physical illness? Yes, of course! Here at Our Lady of Peace alone, I knew a woman who was a great minister here. But, as it turns out, she had a tumor and just did not want to deal with it. I'll explain. She had felt bad for the longest time and she was getting progressively weaker. Finally, she looked so weak that I spoke with her after Mass. I shared with her that I could not allow people to get hurt here, and with that in mind, I asked her to get a doctor's evaluation. A doctor should "ok" her to continue her ministry here. She complied. The result of her medical examination was that she did have a tumor and had it for some time. She seemed to know this beforehand, and felt that God would take care of it. But she waited too long, and died about two or three weeks after her doctor's visit.

My mother was also such a person. I had noticed that she had become sick once and did not want to see a doctor because she didn't want to get any "bad news." Her ongoing weakness compelled me to insist that she see a doctor. Although she was reluctant, she did see a doctor and she learned that she had cancer. This medical evaluation resulted in her hospitalization, which over time allowed doctors to notice additional health concerns. Finally, she had to go to a nursing home where, so many months later, she passed away.

Now, just as people can live with physical problems and not want to actively deal with them because of fear of receiving bad news, is it possible that this same process can happen in people's spiritual life as well? And we find that the answer here too is yes.

Doctors have various manuals (library's!) that list out physical maladies. Spiritually, we have a library that lists out various spiritual maladies, too. It's called the Bible. The Bible is in effect a library, in that it is a collection of books. If we were to browse through the Bible, we might find ourselves amazed (or not) as to how many spiritual problems people seemingly choose to live with rather than confront. Largely due to the bad feelings they might have exactly because of confronting them.

Look how many people simply accept "road rage!" Excuses abound! Consider: "Everyone does it!" "We live in an angry nation now and we just have to accept that reality." "That other driver deserved to be the recipient of my anger!" And so on. We excuse ourselves on so many levels for as many sins as we can think of. And how many people don't want to hear about Purgatory anymore! The cause for these feelings is the same. Just as with physical illness, people live with spiritual illnesses because they just don't want to feel bad by having to acknowledge them. So, they live with them instead.

But there is one major difference between the physical illnesses mentioned, and the spiritual ones. By not dealing with physical problems in time, they can potentially get worse. They could result even in death. Not so with the spiritual. Granted, they too could get worse by not dealing in time, but when we do - whenever we do - the result is always life! Christ does promise us the fullness of life! By dealing them finally, we will inevitably feel Peace, and perhaps even Joy. And this can happen even on ones' deathbed. It's been known to happen. But why wait to feel Peace and Joy only then? We can go to our Spiritual Doctor right now and get the Blessed Results just waiting for us. God bless you!!

Peace, Fr. Walter

A message from the Diocese...

I am grateful to Pope Francis for the appointment of Bishop Joseph M. Siegel as the sixth Bishop of Evansville, Indiana. Over the past six years, I have come to appreciate Bishop Siegel's many gifts and talents. It has been a blessing to work with him. He has been a great asset to the Church of Joliet, both as a priest and a bishop. I am confident that he will prove to be an effective and loving pastor in Evansville.

Bishop Siegel's Installation for the Diocese of Evansville will take place on Friday, December 15, 2017. May God bless him and the people he has been called to serve.

Eighth Grade Science

The 8th graders copper plated a paper clip using electrolysis. Two paper clips were attached to a battery and submerged into a solution of copper chloride. The current provided electrical energy to break the chemical bond between the Cu and the Cl atoms to produce chlorine gas and solid copper, which attached to the paper clip. Pretty darn cool!

Acting for the benefit of others. Prophet Isaiah tells this story of God calling Cyrus, the king of Persia, by name. God calls him to bring Chosen People from Babylonian exile back home. MARRIAGE:

Our Parish is a wonderful setting to celebrate your Sacrament of Marriage. Couples must make arrangements at least 1 year before your proposed wedding date to allow for ample time for Marriage Prep.

Please contact Deacon Larry Fudacz at 630-323-4333 Ext. 20.

BAPTISM:

We ask that the parents be registered members of the parish. First time parents must attend one hour (plus) of Pre-Baptismal instruction held on 2nd or 3rd Tuesdays of February, April, June, August, October and December at 7:30 p.m. in the Church Hall. The Pre-Baptismal class may be taken before the birth of the child.
