"Spirituality"

I know. People looking at this title might easily conclude that the topic concerns civil rights perhaps. But it doesn't. It really concerns integrating what we know about Spirituality as taught by the Roman Catholic Church. I never tire of saying that the longest journey in the spiritual life is between head and heart. Although our knowledge of the spiritual life can easily be seen as varying in degrees from one person to the next, everyone has the exact same task of integrating it. In other words, our spiritual task is to understand what we already know to such an extent, that living it out becomes as easy as breathing. That's a challenge to be sure, but it can be done.

Our ultimate role models for how it is done are, of course, the Saints. There are more Saints in heaven than the ones the Church proclaims to be Saints. We are given these more notable people because they act as role models for us, maps as it were. The teachings of the Church are maps; the Saints act as maps lived out, or what it looks like to integrate these teachings. Tony Robbins, the famous motivational speaker, once said that if one wants to achieve a certain goal, find someone who has mastered it and just do what he/she did. You will achieve the same result. I have always found that saying to be true. Now, how can we model the Saints?

The Saints reflected deeply on Scripture and Church teachings. They were passionate about God, and their lives reflected this single-mindedness. To be passionate about God typically translated to mean that they would not be passionate about worldly matters. But such an attitude did not stop them from loving the world, realizing through their reflection, once again, that the world and everything in it was a creation of God, and as Genesis tells us, it was good as a result. So all that they saw reflected God, much as a mirror, in turn inspiring them to praise God, and in that attitude of praise, to pray and to pray deeply. Why deeply? Mirrors, like everything else I suppose, get dirty, and whenever we see a dirty mirror we get inspired to clean it. Don't we? We people are part of this world, and the Saints noticed that everyone including themselves needed healing. And until we all experience total healing by God, the mirror won't be as reflective as it could be.

So, the Saints, living out of their single-mindedness, accepted the Lord's command to spread the Good News, and to heal everyone as a result. Nothing can heal us as well as the Good News. The Saints got that insight from both reading about their Master healing people throughout the gospels, and noticing by experience the results of their own actions in the world. People, listening to them and following their example, quite simply experienced even deeper healing. When you see good results from what you do, the experience of that reinforces what you do.

They were not afraid of their emotions. They noticed them, much like waves on the surface of the water. They noticed their potential to get angry. But they did not give in to it. That took practice and some time to be successful. But rather giving in to anger, they doubled their effort to concentrate on the Lord instead. You cannot do two things at the same time. Whenever they concentrated on the Lord, they felt peaceful - a much better feeling than anger. It was not a question of refusing to feel emotion. It was more like choosing which emotion you wanted to feel. Then that evolved to being willing to feel what God wants them, and all of us, to feel, and that of course is joy. When God gave them the gift of joy, they rejoiced! The Bible is filled with accounts of the Holy People rejoicing! And when they did not feel joy, they chose to be patient - and wait. While waiting, they used that time to continue to pray, and to continue to serve others in God's Name, knowing that God would gift them with joy once again in God's all good time. In this way, we see that their lives were rich in meaning and of course, very productive. After all, they served their brothers and sisters well by their very lives, and throughout, rested in God. Perfect.

Peace, Fr. Walter

Mass of Remembrance

For All Souls

November 2, 2017
7:00pm

All parishioners are invited to a special "Mass of Remembrance" for all Souls on Thursday, November 2 at 7pm. Please be aware that only those who have died between October 1, 2016 through October 1, 2017 will be formally acknowledged during the Liturgy.

On All Souls Day, we not only remember the dead, but we apply our efforts through prayer, almsgiving, and the Mass to their release from Purgatory.

Praying for the dead is a Christian Obligation. In the modern world, when many have come to doubt the Church's teaching on Purgatory, the need for such prayers has only increased. The Church devotes the month of November to prayer for the Holy Souls in Purgatory, and participation in the Masses of All Souls Day is a good way to begin the month.

GRANDPARENTS/FRIENDS DAY

Our school held its annual Grandparents/friends Day on Friday, October 20th. We started the day off with a special Mass with our Grandparents/friends. Above, one of our students was visited by Jesus and two of his angels. He discussed the reading with her and the meaning behind it. The angels just came in, sat down, and looked cute.

After Mass, the grandparents/friends were invited back to school. At school, they met up with their little ones and were given a tour of the classroom and the building. The Home School Association held a nice reception in the gymnasium for everyone to enjoy treats and drinks. Our resident photographer, Mr. Didio took pictures of the families.

HOME SCHOOL ASSOCIATION RAFFLE

The drawing for the H.S.A. Raffle for the beginning of the school year, September, and October took place at the beginning of the month. The winners are as follows: Beginning of the school year ($550)

- Ms. Susmarski, September ($100) – Mr. and Mrs. Block, and October ($100) – Mr. and Mrs. Hough. If you haven't gotten your tickets in yet, please drop them off in the school office. If you would like to purchase more tickets, you can pick them up in the school office. Tickets are $10 each and each ticket has a chance to win each month. There are still nine more drawings, including the Christmas drawing ($550) and the end of the school year drawing ($3,000).

PRE-KINDERGARTEN

There are still a couple of slots available for our three year old and four year old pre-kindergarten classes. There are a few half day options available for our three year old program and both half and full day options available at the four year old level.

Do you have a son or daughter that has recently turned three or will be turning three before January 1st? Did you know that you could send your child to our Tuesday/Thursday morning program to get a jump start on pre-kindergarten. Please call the school office (630-325-9220) with any questions that you may have about this. All children in the pre-k program must be potty trained and out of pullups.

UNITY DAY

Our Lady of Peace School will take part in this year's Unity Day on Wednesday, October 25th. Unity Day was founded initially as an Anti-Bullying Day. The motto for the event is: Together Against Bullying – United for Kindness, Acceptance, and Inclusion. Pass On the Good News!

What good news? – The Good News of Jesus Christ and our Catholic faith! We have over 200 children Kindergarten through grade 8 signed up to learn more about Jesus and the Catholic faith. You can help them learn and grow in faith by becoming a catechist for Religious Ed.! We have a vacancy for the Tues. 4:30-5:45 session - Grade 6. As you nurture the faith of our young, you'll learn and grow as well! As one long-time catechist put it, "I learn so much from the children!"

Interview with a catechist. Question: Why are you a catechist?

"I began teaching Religious Ed. because I was asked to teach my son's class when he entered preschool as there was no Catechist for his grade. I am still here teaching after 22 years and all of my four children being confirmed because I feel called to share my faith with children. I have seen the program and our parish change over the years, but the needs of the youth remain the same. I truly enjoy getting to know my students every year. I believe they teach me as I share God's love with them. We help each other grow in faith." Kathy White

"Being a catechist is a one way to 'make a return to the Lord for all His goodness to me.'" (Psalm 116). Patricia Haney

Requirements: Email and text-friendly, open-hearted faith-filled person or team of two who love Jesus and will share the good news with students! Time investment: Approx. two hours a week for lesson planning. Must attend a one-time 3-hour Protecting God's Children class and authorize a background check. We provide you with training, materials, support and chocolate. ☺

A message from the Diocese...

I am grateful to Pope Francis for the appointment of Bishop Joseph M. Siegel as the sixth Bishop of Evansville, Indiana. Over the past six years, I have come to appreciate Bishop Siegel's many gifts and talents. It has been a blessing to work with him. He has been a great asset to the Church of Joliet, both as a priest and a bishop. I am confident that he will prove to be an effective and loving pastor in Evansville.

Bishop Siegel's Installation for the Diocese of Evansville will take place on Friday, December 15, 2017. May God bless him and the people he has been called to serve.

Three “do-nots” and two “dos”.

The Old Law says: Do not oppress the alien. Do not wrong the widow or orphan. Do not keep the poor poor. That is, care for the most vulnerable...with dignity, with justice, and with compassion. Jesus puts it in the positive. Love God. Love neighbor as yourself.

MARRIAGE:

Our Parish is a wonderful setting to celebrate your Sacrament of Marriage. Couples must make arrangements at least 1 year before your proposed wedding date to allow for ample time for Marriage Prep.

Please contact Deacon Larry Fudacz at 630-323-4333 Ext. 20.

BAPTISM:

We ask that the parents be registered members of the parish. First time parents must attend one hour (plus) of Pre-Baptismal instruction held on 2nd or 3rd Tuesdays of February, April, June, August, October and December at 7:30 p.m. in the Church Hall. The Pre-Baptismal class may be taken before the birth of the child.
