The Marian Fathers of the Immaculate Conception

From Father Walter's desk...
"When Does the Mass End?"

Many graces are given by our Lord during the Mass. Certainly it makes no sense to squander them. What sense would it make to get a million dollars at a function only to lose it all in a few minutes afterward? I've said in the past, both in homilies as well as in this pastor page, that the longest distance in the spiritual journey is between the head and heart. Basically, what this means for all practical purposes is that one can learn lots of stuff and integrate little of it. Christ doesn't want us to simply learn His truths He also wants us to put everything we learn into action. Christ says that many will come and say, "Lord, Lord," and will not enter the Kingdom of Heaven. Why? Such people integrated little to nothing and thereby put nothing into action. Remember the good old days? Well, when I was a child it was insufficient to limit one's confession to sins of commission, or what I did in fact that was sinful. I also was expected to confess sins of omission, which represents what I should have done, but didn't. Hmm, how could I have put this teaching into action? Goodness! I didn't even try to put anything into action since my last confession! Yes, this failure to do so is also sinful. Why? It indicates that there is still a severance between me and God. That's sinful. It indicates that my relationship with God is not strong; in fact, it is weak. And yes, that too is another way of looking at sin. And if you bare wondering how the Church looks on such a concept these days, well, you should know that this understanding persists even now. Truth is truth. It is unchanging.

The Church strongly advises us to integrate what we know and to put it into action. The Church advises us for our own good. So what is a good way to nourish such integration? In my opinion, the Mass is a great place to start. It is our highest form of prayer. If we are so willing, we could experience it daily. For most of us, we experience it at least on Sunday, but we could attend daily! In either case, it is most beneficial if we examine ourselves at Mass-our very attitudes-and see what ought to be improved upon. Over the centuries, one persistent train of thought encouraged Catholic believers to reflect on their lives before Mass even began. The idea here was to develop the right frame of mind. As an example, if I am going to visit someone who really does not interest me, than I may think of anything else before I go to visit. And how will that visit go? I imagine that it will not be the best of get togethers. I may even hope, while there, that it would end soon. I'll be bored. Now, on the other hand, let's say that I am really excited about the person(s) that I will visit, and that I have lots to talk about already in my head. Now that is a visit! And when I am with that person I don't even notice the time passing. That is a quality visit! It's the same at Mass. The Saints would always invite us to remember whose Presence we are in. But it takes a little while to do that, and for this reason we need to be silent and recollect. After Communion we ought to take the time to thank God for allowing us to receive Him in such a sacramental way. We can use the same time to even consider a point we heard either in the Scriptures offered that day, or in the homily given, or both. And then we thank God for the insight! And then there is the end of Mass. First, shake off everything and anything that made you angry or irritable during Mass. That's sinful; it distracts you from God and only feeds your severance from Him. It could block your ability to integrate some point that God was attempting to teach you. You might see such a moment as seed scattered on shallow ground. It won't take root. Nothing will. Instead, sit in silence after the Mass; talk to God in your own words. Forgive whatever made you angry if such a state of affairs exists. Ask God instead to understand what was taught to you, and thank Him above all in allowing you to experience His Presence. Never squander opportunities like this! Take advantage of them instead! God bless you always!

Peace, Fr. Walter

Remembering Jesus'
Message of Divine Mercy...

“You are not living for yourself but for souls and other souls will profit from your sufferings. Your prolonged suffering will give them the light and strength to accept My will.”
 (Diary, 67)

From the Catechism of the Catholic Church ...

“The Holy Spirit gives to some a special charism of healing so as to make manifest the power of the grace of the risen Lord. But even the most intense prayers do not always obtain the healing of all illnesses. Thus St. Paul must learn from the Lord that ‘my grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness,’ and that the sufferings to be endured can mean that ‘in my flesh I complete what is lacking in Christ’s afflictions for the sake of his Body, that is the Church.”

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT WORKING ON THE MARGINS

- LEARN about those living in poverty. • ACT and spread the word about poverty by passing along this flier.
- CONNECT with the work of CCHD by supporting the collection. • PRAY for those who benefit from this collection.

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) was founded in 1970 by the Catholic bishops of the United States as their domestic anti-poverty program. Designed to address the policies and structures that perpetuate poverty to create sustainable solutions, CCHD empowers poor and marginalized people to join together and make decisions to improve their lives and neighborhoods.

For example, with your support of the Catholic Campaign for Human Development, El Pájaro Community Development Corporation (CDC) is empowering Latino and Spanish-speaking entrepreneurs like Marleny. Marleny came to the United States from El Salvador, escaping violence and an unsafe situation. She had a dream to start a pupuseria restaurant and to serve traditional Salvadoran food and support her family. She entered the Business Education and Loan Program at El Pájaro CDC and in October 2014 opened Pupuseria Marleny's. With the support and education she received, her business has been so successful that she has already opened a second restaurant. The restaurants have allowed Marleny to provide gainful employment to five new workers and help revitalize her community.

Look for the Giving Tree “Angels”

Thanksgiving Weekend

“For it is in giving that we receive.”

St. Francis of Assisi

If you want to feel the true meaning of Christmas, we invite you to participate in our Giving Tree. Each year our parishioners are delighted for the opportunity to share with the less fortunate, at the same time the recipients of these gifts are humbly grateful. Our Lady of Peace Giving Tree program provides a happy Christmas to local families who have difficulties making ends meet and come to our parish weekly to benefit from our Food Pantry.

On Thanksgiving weekend, November 25 & 26, two trees will be hung in church on the side walls adjacent to the altar. The trees will be decorated with angel ornaments, numbered for specific recipients. The back side of the ornament will list gender, size and a SUGGESTION of something the individual might like to receive. We ask that you take an ornament ONLY if you are able to purchase one of the suggested items or something similar.

Please remember that by taking an ornament, you are making a commitment to provide the individual with a gift.

Attach the ornament to the wrapped gift with the number visible

Please deliver all prepared gifts to the School Lobby before or after the Masses, December 16 between 4 and 6pm or December 17 between 7am and 12:00pm. All gifts must be turned in by 12 noon on Sunday, December 17th.

November 2, 2017

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Thank you for your dedication to the Catholic Church and the schools in the Diocese of Joliet. Today I write to share with you an exciting and unprecedented opportunity for Catholic education that requires all of our attention. In August, the Illinois House and Senate passed a comprehensive education funding bill which was signed into law by the governor. In the weeks since, more and more details are emerging. The bill includes a new five-year program for Tax Credit Scholarships (TCS) for students in private schools that will create more equity in school funding throughout Illinois.

As you are a valued partner in our diocese, I have included a brief overview of the tax credit scholarship program, and the opportunity it provides for students, their families, and potential donors.

- Under the TCS program, individuals and corporations can make donations to a Scholarship Granting Organization (SGO) that will distribute scholarships to qualified students (described below). In the interest of time and efficiency we have joined with the other Illinois dioceses in using "Empower Illinois" as our SGO.
- Individual and corporate donors will receive a 75% state tax credit for donations up to $1 million made to an SGO. Individual donors can designate their donation to an individual school, subset of schools, or a school system such as the Diocese of Joliet schools. Corporate donations cannot be designated and will be distributed ratably across the state.
- Students in grades K-12 may receive tax credit scholarships beginning with the 2018/2019 school year. To qualify for tax credit scholarships, families must earn less than 300 percent of the federal poverty level. In the first months of the program, applications from students with the greatest financial need, as well as those who reside in school districts with significant challenges, will be prioritized. More information on applications will be forthcoming when it is provided by the state.

Tax credits will be available on a first come, first served basis beginning January 2, 2018. As there is a limit to the amount of tax credits available, it is important we move quickly to ensure we do not lose the opportunity to have the funds designated to Diocese of Joliet schools. Strong interest may cause this cap to be reached very quickly. More information will be provided from the diocese as it becomes available.

In the meantime, I invite you to visit www.dioceseofjoliet.org/ILTCSP to learn more. Please consider this opportunity with an open heart and I thank you for your dedication to the Diocese of Joliet.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend R. Daniel Conlon
Bishop of Joliet

TAX CREDIT SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM FAQs

What is a Tax Credit Scholarship Program?

It allows individuals and corporations to donate to scholarship granting organizations (SGO) and receive a credit on their state taxes in return. These organizations will then use this money to grant scholarships to qualifying students.

How much is the credit worth?

An individual or corporate donor will receive a 75 percent credit on their donation. This means that if a donor donates $10,000, they will receive a state tax credit of $7,500. Donations by both individual and corporate donors are capped at $1 million. Individual donors can direct their donations to the school or subset of schools of their choice. Corporate donors cannot designate. The credit is non-refundable, but it can be carried forward for five years.

Can a donor receive a federal tax deduction in addition to a state tax credit for the same donation?

No. The legislation specifically prohibits this.

Is there program cap?

Yes, there is a cap of $75 million per year. The cap indicates the amount of tax credits that can be handed out; it does not cap the amount of scholarships that can be distributed under the program. In order for the $75 million cap to be hit, $100 million will have to be donated.

How does that donation process work?

Beginning on January 1, 2018, individual and corporate donors will be able to reserve tax credits on an Illinois Department of Revenue website. They will then have 60 days to donate the amount they reserved to the SGO of their choice. After donating, they will receive a certificate of receipt from the SGO, indicating that a donation was made. The SGO will then notify the Department of Revenue that a donation was made. If a donor doesn't donate, rescinds their donation, or gives less than they indicated to the Department of Revenue, they will not receive ANY tax credit.

Will all scholarships go to Chicago?

No. There is a requirement in the new law that the Department of Revenue ensures distribution of scholarships throughout the entire state.

The following is from one of our parishioners...

“As a cancer survivor, I have attended Finding Strength and Hope Through the Way of the Cross: A Journey with Cancer. The stations were incredibly moving and allowed me to relate my journey with cancer to the journey Jesus had with the cross. Though I was the one diagnosed with cancer, my family, friends, and caregivers also connected with the stations.” Linda Bronsteader

Be Prepared. Scouts live by the maxim. Those in the US Coast Guard say "Always [be] ready" (Semper paratus). US Marines say "Always [be] faithful" (Semper fidelis). In the Gospel parable today, five are ready and five are not. It is a story of how to live in the present age while waiting for the Parousia [pare-oo-SEE-ah] - that is, the world's end, the final judgement, meeting God face-to-face. ~ How will I stay awake, be ready for the Lord's coming? ~ Why should I not fear death? ~How will I live today if I know I would die tomorrow?

IS GOD CALLING YOU TO BECOME A EUCHARISTIC MINISTER AND/OR LECTOR?
