

JUNE 11, 2017 | THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life.

From Father Walter's Desk...

"Deacon Paul"

The Religious Order I belong to thought it auspicious when the late Pope Saint John Paul II died on the Feast day of Divine Mercy. I find it auspicious when our own Deacon Paul died so closely to the Feast day of Pentecost. It's as if God was strongly inviting us to witness how the Holy Spirit speaks through the example of Paul's life.

I didn't spell out Paul's name above. I spelled out how people knew him. He was for one and all, "Deacon Paul." This is how people knew him, and that's the problem with us and the Holy Spirit. The third person of the Trinity is not seemingly known by us. He remains a stranger to many; at best, we merely know his name, the Holy Spirit, and not much more. That must change.

Christ makes great strides here. He introduces the Holy Spirit, and it happens around the time of His death and Resurrection. The language used isn't typically associated with an introduction but that is what it is. You can meet the Holy Spirit through Light and Love. I have those words inscribed on a replica of an ancient Christian cross that I bought at the Smithsonian Institute. Light on the horizontal beam and Love on the vertical. Powerful words. After all, no light was revealed to the world in such splendor as when Christ died and rose. How do you rid a room of darkness? Turn on a light switch. The darkness immediately vanishes. Same experience happened with the world when Christ lived. And we can all contribute to that same effort in imitation of Christ. That is what the followers of Christ have done and continue to do.

This is where Paul comes in. He contributed greatly by continuing to reflect Christ's light. His preaching of the Lord and his living out what he preached are all amazing contributions to the spiritual light of this parish. Want a contrast? Don't you admit that when you read or hear of shootings someplace or international terrorist activity, you feel like you are looking into a pit of darkness? Well, don't you feel like you are looking directly into light whenever you witnessed Paul's enthusiasm in his preaching or in other forms of ministry, whether in Baptisms or the Food Pantry? I sure did.

The world is a much brighter place because of Paul's life. You know, in most accounts of "near death experiences," people typically recount moving through a tunnel toward a bright light. Then a voice from the light tells them to go back. That experience didn't happen to Deacon Paul. The light embraced him instead. But not before Deacon Paul opened the window of his own life and shined a good part of that light on us first. Thanks, Deacon Paul. Go into that light now. Go deeply into it. And rest in peace.

Blessings, Fr. Walter

Remembering Jesus' Message of Divine Mercy...

St. Faustina writes in her diary:

"Few are the souls that are always watchful for divine graces, and even fewer of such souls who follow those inspirations faithfully. Still, a soul which is faithful...cannot confirm its own inspirations...it should not, on its own initiative alone, put its trust in their inspirations...because it can thus expose itself to great loss." (Diary # 138-139)

From the Catechism of the Catholic Church ...

"Unintentional ignorance can diminish or even remove the imputability of a grave offense. But no one is deemed to be ignorant of the principles of the moral law, which are written in the conscience of every man."

Deacon Paul L. Brachle

February 11, 1931 - June 3, 2017

Paul L. Brachle, 86, of Darien, Illinois passed away on June 3, 2017 surrounded by his wife and children. He was born February 11, 1931 in Chicago, IL. He served 8 years in the U.S. Army and Army Reserves during the Korean War. After serving his country, he studied and earned a Bachelor's degree in Engineering from Purdue University. He worked for 33 years as a packaging engineer in the food industry at Continental Can Company then Crown, Cork and Seal.

He was married in 1958 to Marilyn (nee Mahoney), and together, they lovingly raised 8 children. On September 14, 1985, Paul was ordained a deacon of the Catholic Church and began serving Our Lady of Peace Church in Darien. When he retired from his engineering job, he served as a full-time deacon. He visited the sick and brought them Holy Communion, comforted the bereaved, advised the lost, taught in the parish, and ran the food pantry for many years. He was a good and faithful servant, a caring and supportive husband, loving and wonderful father, and beloved grandfather. His greatest joy was encouraging others in the love and service of our Lord Jesus Christ. He will be greatly missed, but his family takes comfort in his joy in heaven.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Paul and Mary (nee Kuhn) Brachle, his sister Lois Manifold (nee Brachle), his brother-in-law Jack Manifold, his sister-in-law Carol Russell (nee Mahoney), his brother-in-law John Russell, and his grandson Tommy Williams. He is survived by his wife of 59 years, Marilyn, his 8 children—Mary Brachle, Margaret Caine (Michael), Susan Garvin (Martin), Paul Brachle (Tracey), Nancy Tushman (Matthew), Teresa Nadolski, John Brachle, and Sarah Wagner (Chris)—and his 17 grandchildren.

A depiction of Rublev's Icon of the Holy Trinity.

The Old Testament Scriptures are replete with images, symbols, and shadows of the true nature of God.

A crowning example of this is the description in Genesis of God's appearance to Abraham and Sarah by the oaks of Mamre. As Abraham sat at the entrance of his tent in the heat of the day....."he looked up and saw three angels standing near him. When he saw them, he ran from the tent entrance to meet them and bowed down to the ground. He said, "My lord, if I find favor with you, do not pass by your servant. Let a little water be brought and wash your feet. Rest yourselves under the tree. Let me bring a little bread, that you may refresh yourselves and after that you may pass on—since you have come to your servant." So they said, "Do as you have said." And Abraham hastened into the tent to Sarah and said, Make ready quickly three measures of choice flour, knead it and make cakes. Abraham ran to the herd and took a calf, tender and good, and gave it to the servant, who hastened to prepare it. Then he took curds and milk and the calf that he had prepared, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree while they ate. – Book of Genesis, Chapter 18

The pinnacle and definitive Icon of the Holy Trinity was revealed in the 15th century, at the hand of St Andrei Rublev. Cast in the light of Christ's revelation, this appearance of the Lord – called the "Hospitality of Abraham" – has always been understood as a manifestation of the Holy Trinity.

In this icon, the Three Angels lean toward each other in mutual love, their hands held in a blessing directed toward the centre. The table is now unmistakably an altar, with even a small recess shown in which traditionally relics are placed. The various fruits, breads and meat shown on other icons are replaced with just a single chalice, representing the Holy Eucharist.

Each of the Three hold rods of divine authority, and sit elevated so that their feet do not touch the earth. The simplicity of the Icon is captivating. The Three Angels, whilst distinct persons, possess a striking similarity to each other, producing a harmony between Them. As They lean toward each other, we follow Their gaze from One, to the Other, and back again. As we witness the intimate conversation between Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, we are invited to participate: not only in contemplation of the Icon, but in all aspects of our life.
