The seed sown on
rich soil
is the one who hears the word of the kingdom and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold.

~ Matthew 13:23

From Father Walter's desk...

"Is your cup half full or half empty?"

What would your answer be to a question like this? It's important to answer it. Why, you ask? Well, from what I read and have experienced in life, people who view their lives as a cup half full tend to enjoy life better. Whereas people who view their lives as a cup half empty tend to not enjoy their lives all that much.

For example, I've learned something since living in the Midwest. Often enough when I say, "God bless you" to someone, quite a few people will reply, "He has." They are taking the time to see all the Blessings in their lives- Blessings from God. They must thank God regularly for His Blessings because they reply rather quickly that response when I say, "God bless you!"

In the Bible, people who can see God's Blessings in their lives don't stop by thanking Him. They go further by being generous to others. They are not insecure, feeling any need to cling to what they have, so they are generous with their possessions. After all, everything they have, they believe, comes from God anyway. Therefore, God must be taking care of them, and they surmise will always continue to do so.

Not so the folk who see their lives as a cup half empty. Not only do they not see God's Blessings in their lives, they tend to reflect only on what they do not have, clinging as a result to what they view as the paltry things in their lives. The further tendency is to believe that if they give what little they have away, then they will have nothing. And that's scary. So, they are not generous, but rather cling instead.

In the end, it's all interpretation as to whether I see the cup in my life as either half empty or half full. Nonetheless, how I see my world- or interpret my world- will have bearing on the extent I am optimistic or pessimistic. Consider Senator John McCain, the United States Republican Senator. He was a prisoner of war in Hanoi during Vietnam. How is it that he could stay so strong during his imprisonment that when released, he was strong enough psychologically to become successful in politics? Other pilots who experienced the same in Hanoi went into deep depression, some even committing suicide. The difference would lie in how each viewed their world.

We had an Auschwitz survivor address our Junior High class this year who shared horrible memories of that time. A bright student asked afterward what he felt about German people. He stated that there are "good in every people." He weighed only 80 lbs. when he was liberated by the U.S. Army and after regaining his health, he moved to Germany and even dated a German girl. Nightmares notwithstanding, he never surrendered to holding any animosity to all Germans.

Indeed, Victor Frankl went to this same camp. He eventually developed a system, a therapy that concentrated on finding meaning in life. Elie Wiesel said he will never forget the night he arrived in this camp, same experiences- different ways of viewing these experiences.

In the end, the world "out there" doesn't force us to feel in a certain way. We choose how we will react to our experiences. We choose whether our cup is half empty or half full.

Blessings, Fr. Walter

Remembering Jesus' Message of Divine Mercy...

"The message given to St. Faustina calls for us to trust in God in all situations, ask for His mercy, and be merciful to others. As God forgives our sins, we are to forgive others of transgression. 'Whenever you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone; so that your Father in heaven may also forgive you your trespasses' (MK 11:25)"
(EADM Manual)

From the Catechism of the Catholic Church ...

"The apostles St. Paul reminds us of this: He who loves his neighbor has fulfilled the law. 'you shall love your neighbor as yourself.' Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law."

Green Means GROW!

The Catholic Church's calendar is called the Liturgical Calendar. In some ways, it is similar to the one that you use in your home because it helps us keep track of many special days of celebration such as Jesus' birth day, His Passion and Resurrection, and the feast days of many of the Holy Saints. Seasons are also reflected in the Liturgical Calendar; however, you may not be familiar with all of them.

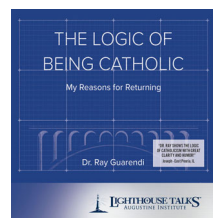

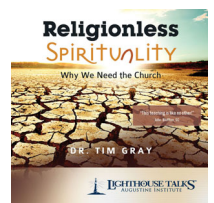

Beginning just a few weeks ago, the Church entered the first of two seasons that are called Ordinary Time. In this case, however, “ordinary” does not mean plain or every day. Instead, it means ordered or numbered because, during these two seasons, we are counting the weeks until our next preparatory season of either Advent or Lent.

One clue that this transition has taken place is that the priests' vestments and the altar cloths have changed to green. Green is the color of hope and growth and, during Ordinary Time, the Catholic Church invites her children to meditate upon the whole mystery of Christ—His life, miracles and teachings. This message is reflected in our new banners that remind us that we are all called to “LOVE” and “SERVE” as Jesus did. You may also notice that the pots and baskets that beautify the altar are now filled with a variety of green plants instead of the bright, colorful flowers that are seen during the celebratory seasons of Easter and Christmas. This too is symbolic of what the Church is encouraging us to do during Ordinary Time—to look for ways in which we can simply and quietly grow and mature in our faith.

MARRIAGE:

Our Parish is a wonderful setting to celebrate your Sacrament of Marriage. Couples must make arrangements at least 1 year before your proposed wedding date to allow for ample time for Marriage Prep.

Please contact Deacon Larry Fudacz at 630-323-4333 Ext. 20.

BAPTISM:

We ask that the parents be registered members of the parish. First time parents must attend one hour (plus) of Pre-Baptismal instruction held on 2nd or 3rd Tuesdays of February, April, June, August, October and December at 7:30 p.m. in the Church Hall. The Pre-Baptismal class may be taken before the birth of the child.

Call Fr. Ron McBride for more information and to schedule, at 630-323-4333 Ext. 29.
