raised from the dead,
dies no more;
death no longer
has power over him.

The Marian Fathers of the Immaculate Conception

From Father Walter's desk...

"What Really is Egotism?"

The answer to the above question is actually not immediately clear. We have so many formal definitions, both from various psychological disciplines, as well as definitions from religious sector. And, needless to say, we as individuals have our nuances on these definitions as well.

For us, as Christians, the notion that the ego is real but must be disciplined to take on a deeper or higher perspective, all of which comes from surrender to God, is a better way to proceed. Here we will have to start with our own experience of life, and to see how the geo became important to us. As Americans there will be some commonality. For example, people are usually (not always for all people) brought up to exceed in life. We may have played sports. We may have had a boy scout/ girl scout affiliation. We may have had some military connection, as in the Junior ROTC. Most of us must have realized that we must study hard in school so that we can get good grades so that we can excel.

My own experience was and is that life is competitive, and I must excel so that I can get a higher place in school, not to mention in a job sector. And if I do not exceed, then someone else will and I will be left behind. Is this true for you? I mention all of this to communicate to you that I am very aware of the awkwardness of the spiritual notion of surrendering the ego against such a background where the ego must be primary, and certainly developed to get ahead in life. What is important for us in developing the ego, not surrendering it. But yet it remains true that the Christian spirituality talks of surrendering the ego. Rather than shrugging off this notion due to possible uncomfortable feelings with it as a result of our backgrounds, I advise reflecting on it and see what understanding can be gained.

Christ always talks of surrendering our Will to God's Will. He states of Himself that He does not speak on His own, but rather says whatever the Father says to Him and through Him. All of the saints (yes, all) would maintain the attitude of not my will, but rather God's Will be done. There are three primary stages of the spiritual life developed by saints and theologians. The first is total selflessness, the second refers to mutual satisfaction of desires, and the last refers to total selfless actions. It indicates that we grow into these stages, by prayer, meditation, and service to others. We learn to let go, and in this way take on a broader perspective. I am born and I have no ego to speak of; I get older and develop an ego so that I can survive in this world; and then I become aware of God and the spiritual life and I want that now, i.e., a deeper spirituality. Once this need surfaces in me, there is almost an "OK" feeling about a slow, gradual letting go of wanting my own way, to wanting the higher perspective that comes from wanting God's Way to become dominant. It feels good to surrender.

Blessings, Fr. Walter

Remembering Jesus' Message of Divine Mercy...

"'As you are united with Me in life, so will you be united at the moment of death' After these words, such great trust in God's great mercy was awakened in my soul that, even if I had the sins of the whole world, as well as the sins of all the condemned souls weighing on my conscience, I would not have doubted God's goodness but, without hesitation, would have thrown myself into the abyss of the divine mercy, which is always open to us..." (Diary, 1552)

From the Catechism of the Catholic Church ...

"The way of Christ 'leads to life'; a contrary way 'leads to destruction.' ...the two ways remains ever present in the catechesis of the church; it shows the importance of moral decisions for our salvation: 'There are two ways, the one of life, the other of death; but between the two, there is great difference.'" Mt 7:13 (CCC #1696)

Our parish will be sponsoring the annual summer Blood Drive as part the City of Darien program on Saturday, July 15th in the school gym. I am in need of volunteers to help register donors and serve refreshments. The time is from 8:15 AM to 2:00 PM. Confirmation candidates are welcome to volunteer for their service hours. If you are willing to work all or part of the time please contact Rosemarie Courtney, coordinator, at 630-964-8415 or rdcourtney@prodigy.net.

Our blood is the life line of our families, community and that of the world. To this day, research done by man has not been able to manufacture it. Blood is purely and simply a human resource, given by one human being for another person in need. Each day of every year blood centers are faced with the challenge of collecting enough blood to meet the region's blood supply demands. It's a difficult task on an average day, but even more during the summer and holiday seasons. Accidents, illness and injuries know no age, race, sex, religion or social status. They certainly do not recognize the lazy hazy days of summer or activities at holiday time. The lack of blood during these times may result in insufficient blood for patient care in our community.

You can help prevent the shortage of blood by donating a pint of your blood on Saturday, July 15th between 8:30 AM and 2:00 PM here at Our Lady of Peace in the School Gym. Last year we collected only 30 pints of blood. Our goal last year was 50 pints. We fell short but I know we can make a goal of 50 pints if everyone who is eligible shows up this year.

Any healthy adult age 17 or older who weighs at least 110 lbs. can donate their blood. It will take you approximately 1 hour. Remember to bring a photo ID with you that day and eat something.

If you have any questions please call, Rosemarie Courtney at 630-964-8415 or email Rosemarie at rdcourtney@prodigy.net.

Making a flag cake is as easy as it looks. You can use anything under the whip cream and fruit. Jello, a cheesecake, or a simple box mix cake. Enjoy a great holiday with your family and take a few minutes to say a prayer...

Prayer for the Nation

Almighty God, You have given us this good land for our heritage. We humbly ask You that we may always prove ourselves a people mindful of Your favor and glad to do Your will. Bless our land with honorable endeavor, sound learning and pure manners. Save us from violence, discord, and confusion, from pride and arrogance, and from every evil way. Defend our liberties and fashion into one united people the multitude brought here out of many nations and tongues. Endow with the Spirit of wisdom those to whom in Your Name we entrust the authority of government, that there may be justice and peace at home, and that through obedience to Your law we may show forth Your praise among the nations on earth. In time of prosperity fill our hearts with thankfulness, and in the day of trouble do not allow our trust in You to fail. Amen.
