Men of Galilee, why are you standing there looking up at the sky? This Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven will return in the same way.

Acts 1:11
I have always been aware of the May Crowning ceremony that our school celebrates. This year, our school celebrated a May Crowning ceremony on May 4th. A young woman was selected for the honor of placing a wreath of flowers as a crown on the head of the Blessed Mother statue in the church.

This is a symbolic action that carries much meaning. The Blessed Mother was always available to serve and not to be served. This is why we pray to her so easily. As someone always available to serve, she always hears our prayers and rushes to help us. Her willingness encourages us to rely on her. Her willingness, additionally, role models for us a deeper way of living with her Son. As she does, so should we.

The Holy Family so inspired the early church that they just knew that they had to transform the world, because it just did not live this way. From this mentality came missionary activity, but, in addition to missionary orders, was an invitation from the Church for all of us to participate in missionary activity ourselves and to bring Christ to others. This is an ongoing struggle, as sometimes the overall society sometimes transforms us, rather than the church transforming it. Examples of this back and forth movement of the Church transforming society and society returning the favor can be found throughout Church history. If one were to look at our relationship to society today, one might find current examples of this. For one example, we must note that we live in a consumer society. Listening to Church teachings, we learn that we are invited to transform our society so that each person would love the next person for him/herself and not for what can be gotten from them. Each person ought to be perceived as a human being and not a product. Now, our society has changed, but much work needs to be yet accomplished. But, on the other hand, don’t we ourselves, both ordained and non-ordained, sometimes view our church along consumers lines? Such attitudes can easily discourage vocations. Anything from Christ that is put into practice will always prove to be a blessing. And so, you will always find young people, men and women, eager to enter the priesthood and the religious life, if what motivates them is a hunger for God, and they find that this hunger is supported by the people around them. In a service oriented Church, as role modeled by the Blessed Mother, everyone serves and supports everyone. Priests and lay people support each other. All parishes then become a living cell, and as a living cell, we work through prayer and service to transform our society, and not transforming us.

All of this meaning lies behind the crowning of the Blessed Mother and our referring to her as the Queen of Heaven and Earth. When we place a crown on her, we are saying that her way of life is supreme and is victorious over all the lesser values that currently exist in our world and in the societies that compose it.

Peace, Fr. Walter

The Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal helps our parish and the Diocese of Joliet to provide countless ministries, programs and services to support our friends and neighbors in immeasurable ways.

A mailing will soon be sent to all parishioners who have not yet made a gift to the CMAA. Despite the severe February snowstorm we encountered over Commitment (In-Pew) Weekend, we are confident we can still meet our goal if we all partner together. If you have not done so already, I ask that you please reflect on God’s gifts to you and prayerfully consider supporting the CMAA. A gift to the CMAA, no matter the amount, will make a difference!

By partnering together, we can continue to spread the Gospel message in our Diocese through our ministries. Thank you for your support.

CMAA Pledge Report for Our Lady of Peace

Monthly pledge payments for CMAA pledges should be made in the next few days. It is very important that these pledges be paid so that our parish will reach our goal. Once we have reached our goal in paid pledges, 70% of the additional funds received will be returned to the parish for our use.

We NEED YOU!
When Our Phone Rings, Will You Answer It?

Somewhere in the world, a lost soul is dialing our toll-free number hoping to find help. Will you answer that call?

If God is calling you to help others, consider becoming a phone counselor for the The Upper Room Crisis Hotline. We are a Faith-Based Hotline in the Catholic tradition providing counseling and referral assistance to anyone struggling to find his or her way back to God or a more rational life. We help everyone regardless of their faith or background.

To be a phone counselor, you don’t need experience in mental health or phone work, although that background is helpful. What you will need is a love of people and a strong desire to help the lonely, frightened, and confused. We provide all the training.

If this ministry touches your heart, please call Sr. Mary Frances Seeley at 815-258-9019, or email catholichotline@gmail.com with questions. Our next training session begins in June. You can also check us out at catholichotline.org. Thank you and God bless.

LIVING DIVINE MERCY
- Mary, Our Mother of Mercy, Part II -

"Through Her, as through a pure crystal, Your mercy was passed on to us. Through Her, man became pleasing to God; Through Her, streams of grace flowed down upon us" (St. Faustina prayer Diary, 1746).

The second reason we are right to call Mary "Mother of Mercy" is that she was the one chosen to be the Mother of God — in other words, she was the Mother of the merciful Savior, and in this way she literally brought Divine Mercy Himself to birth in our world. Of course, this is nothing more than the common faith of the Church. When Mary humbly accepted the angel Gabriel's call, she actually conceived in her womb, and brought to birth into our world, the merciful God made flesh, Mercy Incarnate, Jesus Christ.

It is ironic that this very simple theological truth — that Mary is our Mother of Mercy because she gave birth to our merciful Savior — has now become the focal point for a modern theological controversy: the claim that as Mother of Mercy, she is also the "Co-Redemptrix," and the "Mediatrix of all graces." As Mother of Mercy and Co-Redemptrix, Mary is also rightly called the "Mediatrix of all graces," and in his encyclical Redemptoris Mater (1987), Pope John Paul II called her "Mediatrix of Mercy." If we think of ourselves as the little children in God's family (and that is precisely what Jesus said we must become: like little children), then it only stands to reason that we are dependent upon the mother in God's family, Mary our Mother, to "mediate" to us (that is, to pass on to us) everything that we need.

In short, Mary, as Mother of our merciful Savior, is rightly called the Co-Redemptrix and the Mediatrix of all His graces and mercies to us. She plays a unique and unequalled role in God's plan to shower His mercy upon us all. Like any true and loving mother, her children can be trustfully and completely dependent upon her to bring us all that we need for life and growth. And that's all that Mary's "mediation" really means. It sounds complex at first, but it's really as simple and dependable as a mother's love!
