like the splendor of the firmament,
and those who lead the many to justice

Daniel 12:3

From Father Walter's Desk...
"Thanksgiving"

When the Pilgrims celebrated the first Thanksgiving in 1620, they were quite specific as to what they could be thankful about. One, they were alive. There was some serious concern as to whether any of them would, in fact, survive. There would have to be considering that, one half of them died in the first winter. That's not just a statistic; the one half involved family and friends, people who shared the danger together crossing the Atlantic. They all had so many dreams, leaving Europe with the hope of finding something grand on the other side of the Atlantic. I state in this way, as there seems to have been some confusion as to where they were even going. The original destination was Virginia, the only really known English settlement. They ended up in Massachusetts. Close associations typically form among people who share such dangers together. One half of these associations now ended. But there were survivors, all thanks to the Native American in that region. That is the second reason they were grateful.

The Pilgrims were frightened of the local natives, so much so that they would bury their dead secretly at night. They did this with the hope that it would not be noticed by potential hostile people how many losses had been suffered, thus revealing how weak they now were. An observation like this could leave them vulnerable to an attack. What happened in fact startled them unimaginably. A Native originally from Main simply walked in one day and said, "Welcome Englishmen!" He had been brought to England and later was able to return to Maine, only to find his tribe decimated by disease. Having the ability to speak English, he could communicate with the Pilgrims. He was their first new friend. He later introduced them to a local Native, who in turn introduced them to the local Chief. This second friend did even more than that. He taught them to hunt and to plant, considering the local terrain and weather. The Pilgrims were safe; they could eat; they could survive. Yes, they were grateful, and showed how much they were by inviting the local natives to their feast. Basically, they were grateful because they were alive due to their new friends. Close associations allowed for this. We too can be grateful for the same. We can appreciate the health we have, along with that of our families. And we can take the time this year to appreciate our own friends. It remains true that health is not only that of the body, but that also of the mind. Having friendships nourishes our psychological and spiritual health.

There remains one more reason to be grateful, something else that we have in common with the Pilgrims. They had the freedom to worship their God. They did not have that freedom in England. They did try to practice their religious in Holland, but felt that this country offered an immoral and unethical witness to their children. By living alone as a people, ultimately in Massachusetts, they felt that they could raise their children in a proper, more godly way. In turn, we could easily take the time as well to be thankful that we can worship freely and in peace. And mindful of the Pilgrims desire to support each other spiritually, which powerfully motivated them to make a truly dangerous journey, we can be thankful for the insight of how important it is to offer a good witness to others, especially our children. We can do more actually than be a good witness; we can strive to be an inspiration! Aren't the Pilgrims that for us today? Happy Thanksgiving!

Peace, Fr. Walter

Look for the Giving Tree “Angels”

Thanksgiving Weekend

“For it is in giving that we receive.”

St. Francis of Assisi

If you want to feel the true meaning of Christmas, we invite you to participate in our Giving Tree. Each year our parishioners are delighted for the opportunity to share with the less fortunate, at the same time the recipients of these gifts are humbly grateful. Our Lady of Peace Giving Tree program provides a happy Christmas to local families who have difficulties making ends meet and come to our parish weekly to benefit from the Deacon Paul Brachle Food Pantry at OLOP, Children at the Indiana Children’s Home, Catholic Charities Daybreak Center and Children that the Missionaries of Charity serve.

On Thanksgiving weekend, November 24 & 25, two trees will be hung in church on the side walls adjacent to the altar. The trees will be decorated with angel ornaments, numbered for specific recipients. The back side of the ornament will list gender, size and a SUGGESTION of something the individual might like to receive. We ask that you take an ornament ONLY if you are able to purchase one of the suggested items or something similar.

Please remember that by taking an ornament, you are making a commitment to provide the individual with a gift.

Attach the ornament to the wrapped gift with the number visible

Please deliver all prepared gifts to the School Lobby before or after the Masses, December 8th between 4 and 6pm or December 9 between 7am and 12:00pm. All gifts must be turned in by 12 noon on Sunday, December 9th.

#GIVINGTUESDAY

November 27, 2018 | jolietdioceseappeal.org

Support the 2018 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal this #GivingTuesday!

The Diocese of Joliet is participating in #GivingTuesday! If you have yet to donate to the 2018 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal (CMAA), please mark your calendar for Tuesday, November 27.

The 2018 CMAA goal of $8.2 million is within reach — but we need the help of everyone in the diocese. Every gift, no matter the size, is greatly appreciated and will help support 30 ministries that benefit every parish in the diocese, including ours.

Remember, 70 percent of any amount we raise over our parish goal is returned to us for our use. This is a great opportunity for our parish. Our parish has now raised $AMOUNT of our $GOAL for the 2018 CMAA.

Thank you to everyone who has already pledged their gift to the 2018 CMAA, and for being a partner in caring to so many in our diocese.

For more information about the CMAA before #GivingTuesday, please follow @DOJCMAA on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram or visit jolietdioceseappeal.org.

Save-the-Date for the Welcome Weekends

No doubt, you will soon begin to pencil in all of the birthdays, weddings, anniversaries and other important events on your 2019 calendar. So please don't forget to also add the parish's Welcome Weekends to your calendar as well. The ladies' weekend will be on March 2/3, and the men's weekend will be on March 9/10. Our Welcome Weekends take place during Lent, which is the perfect time to disconnect from your physical life and reconnect with Jesus through these two, special days of spiritual renewal.

In Mark 6:31, we are called by Jesus to "come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." How will you respond to Jesus invitation? For more information, or to register, please go to our parish website at www.olopdarien.org/welcome-weekends/.
