The Marian Fathers of the Immaculate Conception

From Father Walter's Desk...
 "Staying Focused"

We live in the midst of a society that yanks us in different directions. Newspaper ads call for us to see what other people want to sell. Rather than saying, "call," better words might be either "demand" or even "tempt." Society can certainly be recognized often enough as bombarding us with so much temptation. How many people buy things that they do not even need! And more than ads in newspapers tempt us. People we meet, TV and radio shows, and now even the Internet "tempt" us; and not only to buy something, but even what to believe and how even to think. Why should we not simply admit that what other people and groups often want us to believe in tum runs contrary time and time again to what the Roman Catholic Church teaches? People, especially young people, are frequently tempted to live in a manner clearly unhealthy. So, the task for all of us is to find a way that enables us to stay focused through what is indeed a truly complex and troubling situation.

The first question to examine is to see what we are currently focused on, and perhaps even to ask what we want to be focused on. Are we focused at all? If we are not focused on anything, then we are living in a way not all that different from a pin ball bouncing off whatever stands in its path. If this is our current assessment of ourselves, we would have to agree then that we are very susceptible to any kind of tempting influence. This wouldn't be true if we were to be focused on a positive goal that we want to reach, or a positive direction that we would like to have in life. If we were to keep a positive "bull's eye" firmly in our sights, then we are not bothered so much by the different influences that cross our path. Why would we? At this point we would know where we want to go. We know what we want and we are capable of ignoring all that which doesn't lead to it.

God wants us to be focused on Him, specifically. This theme is found throughout the Scriptures. Just recently we have been hearing in the Old Testament about how God led His people out of Egypt. He was described by the Chosen People as a fire by night and a cloud by day. People reached their goal of the Promised Land precisely by being focused on Him in whatever form He manifested to them. Jesus in tum wants to lead us toward the goal of a better-quality life, beginning now and later finding fulfillment in Heaven. This becomes our Promised Land, the end result of our own escape from slavery into freedom. I repeat. Following the way of Christ doesn't only mean that we may end up in Heaven someday. Rather, we start to see, to feel, and to know our freedom we get by experiencing God now. We can experience Him through His Graces of joy and insight by following Him devotedly with our whole hearts. But if we are to have such experiences of freedom, we need to focus. After all, how can we experience such Graces if our energies are scattered in a million directions, wanting so much as we do? For us to be open to the experience of God, we must first and foremost want God for Himself. If we do, then God Himself becomes our goal. If God is our goal, then we will decide to live in such a way that allows us to remain focused on Him. His teachings become our primary path by conscious choice. At this point nothing can possibly distract us as all we can see - is God.

Peace! Fr. Walter

WOMEN of SACRED SCRIPTURE – WOMEN of the #METOO GENERATION

Presented by Sister Karen Nykiel, O.S.B.

TUESDAYS - February 12, 19, 26 & March 5, 2019
Sacred Heart Monastery 9:30 – 11:00 a.m.

Can women living thousands of years ago teach us about life, love, compassion, patience and Wisdom? Though this may seem a huge disparity, the gap between the Biblical lives of women (home, work, social life) and the current lives of women today can lead us to bridges never before examined.

If you are puzzled by this analogy, come and see, hear, and discuss how similarities and differences lead us across the barriers of time.

Recommended: Bring a Bible and, if possible, Women's Biblical Commentary.

There is no fee...donations are always appreciated. All are welcome to one session or all sessions.

You are not alone...

When the time comes, as it surely will, when we face that awesome moment, the final judgment, I've often thought, as Fulton Sheen wrote, that it is a terrible moment of loneliness. You have no advocates, you are there alone standing before God - and a terror will rip your soul like nothing you can imagine. But I really think that those in the pro-life movement will not be alone. I think there'll be a chorus of voices that have never been heard in this world but are heard beautifully and clearly in the next world - and they will plead for everyone who has been in this movement. They will say to God, "Spare him, because he loved us."

Congressman Henry Hyde

Feeling a Bit Uneasy?

Do you have an uneasy feeling to do something but don't know what it is?

Do you hear a faint voice nudging you to do something you can't put your finger on?

If that uneasy feeling or persistent voice keeps coming back, it could be the Holy Spirit trying to tell you something. If so, pray and be open to God's direction.

For some of you, it may lead to a job God wants you to do. And for others, it may be a call to become a volunteer phone counselor for The Upper Room Crisis Hotline.

We help everyone regardless of their faith or background. For that reason, all our phone counselors have gone through extensive professional training to prepare them to handle every situation.

Does this sound like you? If so, contact us now for information. Call Sr. Mary Frances Seeley at 815-341-9124, or email turch@sbcglobal.net with questions or to reserve your place in our next training session.

MARRIAGE:

Our Parish is a wonderful setting to celebrate your Sacrament of Marriage. Couples must make arrangements at least 1 year before your proposed wedding date to allow for ample time for Marriage Prep.

Please contact Deacon Larry Fudacz at 630-323-4333 Ext. 20.

BAPTISM:

Baptisms are celebrated on the second and on the fourth Sunday of each month immediately following the 12 Noon Mass.

We ask that the parents be registered members of the parish. First time parents must attend one hour (plus) of Pre-Baptismal instruction held on 2nd or 3rd Tuesdays of February, April, June, August, October and December at 7p.m. in the School Library. The Pre-Baptismal class may be taken before the birth of the child.

Please contact Deacon Frank Vonesh for more information at 708-793-3505.
