Jesus said to them,
“I tell you, the tax collector went home justified,
not the Pharisee; for whoever exalt themselves
will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.”

Luke 18:14

A Message from Fr. Mark...

When I first joined the Marians back in August of 1998, Fr. David Lord was my first director in formation. During that first year I was, therefore, able to hear him preach on many occasions. There is one particular homily that he gave on All Saints day that I will always remember. He recounted in that homily a time when he was giving a homily at our Marian parish in Greensboro, NC. He was doing a school Mass that day and he asked the school children 'What is a saint?' One of the students responded, as only kids can, that saints are the people in the window whom the light shines through. You see, Our Lady of Grace Parish has a very beautiful Church with many magnificent stained glass windows. So that answer by that youngster, then, was a very astute observation of its interior. However, it also inadvertently became a very profound response to the truth of who saints really are. As Fr. David would go on to explain to us that saints really are just people who let the light shine through them. Of course, he explained to us, we are obviously not talking about the light of the sun shining through us but the Light of THE Son. You see, those people whom we call saints in the Catholic Church are those people who lived their life in such a way that they allowed themselves to be completely and perfectly filled with the Light of Christ. Being filled with that Divine Light then allowed them to radiate that Divine Light to others. How did that exactly happen? They basically lived to the full the words St. John the Baptist uttered in the Gospel of John: 'He must increase (in me); I must decrease.' In other words they lived their life in such a way that they always sought to be empty of themselves (their self will & selfishness) in order to be filled with the life and love of Christ. With the Lords help they became so empty of themselves that Divine Love was able to perfectly fill them and do so in a way that enabled them to radiate this Divine Presence through their very being. There is only one person whom I have encountered in my life that had that unforgettable radiance and that was St. John Paul II whom I had the privilege to encounter on a trip to Poland in 1999. Many people have experienced the same thing in St. Theresa of Calcutta's presence too.

As we celebrate All Saints Day this week, then, remember the wisdom of that young man who so wisely described to Fr. David who the saints really are. In reflecting on that reality, remember, too, that we are all called to be saints. It is really the only purpose of our existence. If we perfectly live the truth expressed in the young man's response then we too shall become like the people in the windows whom the light shines through.

Mass of Remembrance

For All Souls

November 4, 2019 7:00pm

All parishioners are invited to a special "Mass of Remembrance" for all Souls on Monday, November 4 at 7pm. Please be aware that only those who have died between October 1, 2018 through October 1, 2019 will be formally acknowledged during the Liturgy.

On All Souls Day, we not only remember the dead, but we apply our efforts through prayer, almsgiving, and the Mass to their release from Purgatory.

Praying for the dead is a Christian Obligation. In the modern world, when many have come to doubt the Church's teaching on Purgatory, the need for such prayers has only increased.

The Church devotes the month of November to prayer for the Holy Souls in Purgatory, and participation in the Masses of All Souls Day is a good way to begin the month.

THE SEVENTH MONTH OCTOBER 25 TO NOVEMBER 25

Mary's pregnancy is nearing its completion. The crib and baby clothing are ready. But the best laid plans are sometimes turned upside down. The village is abuzz with the news that those of the House of David will be called shortly to Bethlehem to be conted among this princely dynasty.

In Mary's eighth month, the Infant Jesus' skin begins to thicken and layers of fat are stored underneath for insulation and nourishment. Antibodies are building up. Jesus' quarters are getting cramped; chin on chest, his knees, arms and legs are bent.

Many twins are born in the eighth month.

Both our current students and graduates can benefit from our prayers. We will pray for any special intentions you may have for your child.

Coming together in prayer is powerful! Please join us as we gather in the church after each Thursday school mass.
