OF THE LORD JANUARY 12, 2020

AFTER JESUS WAS Baptized

he came up from the water and behold, the heavens were opened for him,

Our Lady of Peace

701 Plainfield Rd.~ Darien, Illinois (630)323-4333 The Marian Fathers of the Immaculate Conception

A message from Fr. Mark...

Dear Parishioners,

I want to let you know that I have decided, at this time, to suspend the regular distribution of holy communion under both species. What this means is that for most Sundays, Holy Communion will now only be distributed under the form of the Sacred Host and not under the form of the Precious Blood via the chalice. Holy Communion under both species will be offered, however, during certain major feast days whose celebration would reflect a certain openness to receiving under both kinds. Such feast days would include Holy Thursday, Pentecost, and Corpus Christi.

It is important to note that this decision is not reflective of a new diocesan policy. In other words, the Diocese of Joliet has not mandated this change. Though the norms for the universal Church concerning this topic reflect a narrower window for the distribution of holy communion under both species, it does allow for the diocesan bishop to establish norms that he deems appropriate for his diocese. Bishop Conlon has continued the practice, begun in the Joliet Diocese in 2002, of allowing parishes a greater freedom to distribute Holy Communion under both species with the priest in charge of the parish given the right to determine the frequency of this practice.

I have made the decision to limit the opportunities of receiving Holy Communion under both species at Our Lady of Peace in discernment with Fr. Peter and our deacons. The basis of this determination involved both catechetical and practical motivations. In general, there is a desire to want to foster a greater Eucharistic awareness as well as to logistically streamline the process by which Holy Communion is distributed at Our Lady of Peace. Over the next couple of weeks, I will provide further explanation regarding how this change is meant to foster a deeper Eucharistic awareness. In the meantime, please be assured that when you receive the Sacred Host you are receiving the full reality of Jesus - Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity - that is contained under the appearance of bread.

Thank you for taking the time to read this letter. I realize that not everyone will agree with this new policy. If you have concerns about this decision, please do not hesitate to communicate them to me, Fr. Peter or the Deacons. We will listen to any feedback as long as it is communicated in a respectful and charitable manner.

May God Bless you and have a wonderful day.

Fr. Mark

Student Spotlight

Our Pre-K 3 year old class has been working very hard these last few months. They have been working on letter and number identification skills, learning about the different shapes, reciting new prayers, basic skills like cutting on a dotted line and so much more!

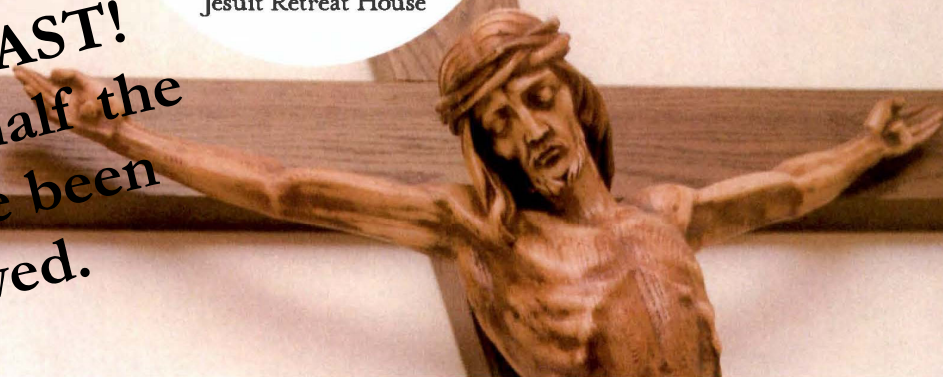

The 6th Grade class created pyramids after learning about ancient Egypt in Social Studies class. Brendan O'Connor explained, "We had to glue things to the outside to make it look like a real pyramid. The different materials people used like model magic and Lego guys to represent the pharaoh was creative." These fabulous pyramids will be on display at the all school Open House on January 26th. Be sure to stop by and check them out!.

SATURDAY, January 25, 2020

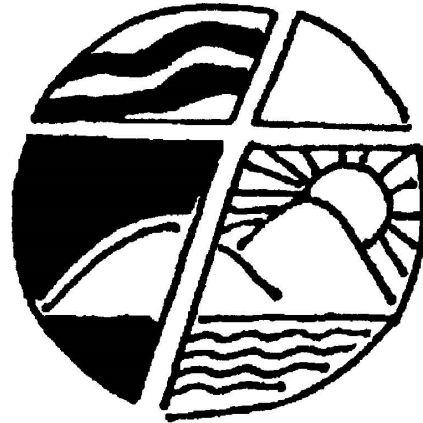

9:00 A.M. - 4:00 P.M.

Blanchette Catholic Center
16555 Weber Rd
Crest Hill, IL 60403

Working on annulment papers alone without support can be emotionally painful, overwhelming, and frustrating.

The Office of Family Ministry offers this one-day workshop designed for divorced persons who have petitioned the Diocesan Marriage Tribunal to begin the annulment process, have submitted the Matrimonial Fact Sheet for their case, but have not yet submitted the long questionnaire. Catholics and non-Catholics are welcome to attend, whether remarried or not.

This day will include time for questions and input regarding annulments and the relational issues dealt with in the questionnaire. Participants will be able to begin or continue filling out the questionnaire within a supportive atmosphere. Pastoral ministers will be available for private consultation. The day will also include a time for prayer, as we focus on beginning to turn painful memories into sources of new life.

Attendance at this day of support is very helpful but not mandatory.
