Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass
(c) 2001, 1998, 1987, 1986, 1970, CCD.

Saint Paul speaks of the “stewardship of God’s grace” to which he was called. Like Saint Paul, each of us is to be a steward of God’s grace. A steward is one who is entrusted with something that belongs to another. The steward bears responsibility for what is entrusted to him or her. Saint Paul understands that his encounter with the Lord and his faith in Jesus Christ carry with them a sacred responsibility, to bring the news of salvation to all. We too have been blessed with much, including the gift of faith, and are called to be good stewards of all with which we have been entrusted. We do this by nurturing a faithful and faith-filled heart, responding to God’s grace through the attitudes and actions that make up our daily lives. We do this as well by sharing our faith and the impact of faith with others, so that they may be drawn to our Lord. This is a sacred responsibility, a blessing, a privilege.

standing and bring this gift in your interactions with others. You might have a talent for bringing new ideas and creative insights into situations at home, work, parish, or your city. You might have a gift for helping people to work together for a great cause or purpose. All of these gifts have been given to you by God, to be used for God’s purposes, for God’s greater glory. All of these are glimpses of God’s grace, and like Saint Paul, you are called to be a good steward of them, as a sign of Christ’s life within you. You bring your gifts to the Lord by using them well, sharing them generously and responsibly in caring for others and for all of creation.

The funds collected through the Bottles for Life campaign support the programs and services of the Waterleaf Medical Clinic and their Aspire Education and Resource Center located in Aurora.

Waterleaf provides practical help; pregnancy testing, ultrasounds, STD testing and treatment as well as continuing education and support for women in our community who would otherwise be at risk for choosing abortion.

Baby bottles will be distributed to parishioners on the weekend Saturday, January 18th and Sunday, January 19th to take home and fill. Bottles can be returned to the parish at any of the Masses the weekends of January 25th and 26th and February 1st and 2nd. Please pick up a Baby Bottle after Mass and fill it with your heartfelt financial donation. Please make checks payable to Waterleaf. Your support is greatly appreciated. For more information about Waterleaf, call them at 630-701-6270 or visit them on the web at www.onechoiceonlife.org.

LIFE IN ACTION | HIGHLIGHT OF THE MONTH

"I'm nervous, I already have a 2-year-old and I haven't told my parents. My boyfriend is excited and wants to parent, but this is so overwhelming."

Patients like "Jackie" come to Waterleaf for their second pregnancies quite often. Being uncertain if they can manage multiple little ones, and the costs associated, can be a big roadblock for many women in choosing life. It makes having free resources like ultrasounds and Aspire that much more important.

Like Jackie, when women feel supported and empowered, they are more likely to choose life for their unborn child. Knowing that they have a safe and non-judgmental place to work through their emotions gives them a sense of calm and allows them to see the bigger picture. When Jackie saw her little one's heartbeat on the screen, she told us she knew they'd all be fine. Thank you for keeping Waterleaf and our patients, like Jackie, in your prayers. Your support brings the gift of life.

Blanchette Catholic Center
16555 Weber Rd

Working on annulment papers alone without support can be emotionally painful, overwhelming, and frustrating.

The Office of Family Ministry offers this one-day workshop designed for divorced persons who have petitioned the Diocesan Marriage Tribunal to begin the annulment process, have submitted the Matrimonial Fact Sheet for their case, but have not yet submitted the long questionnaire. Catholics and non-Catholics are welcome to attend, whether remarried or not.

This day will include time for questions and input regarding annulments and the relational issues dealt with in the questionnaire. Participants will be able to begin or continue filling out the questionnaire within a supportive atmosphere. Pastoral ministers will be available for private consultation. The day will also include a time for prayer, as we focus on beginning to turn painful memories into sources of new life.
