GOD'S LAWS

Today's readings provide some interesting parallels and contrasts. The first reading is an account of Moses who, having delivered the Law to the Israelites, admonishes them to "observe them [its statutes] carefully." The author of the Letter of James likewise instructs fellow Christians to "welcome the word" they have received, that they may become "doers of the words and not hearers only." The psalmist praises "whoever walks blamelessly and does justice" by listing a few examples of what is required for that—descriptions that apply equally to both Jewish and Christian traditions. On the other hand, when the scribes and Pharisees point out that the disciples have not properly washed their hands before eating (which is, as Mark explains, the usual Jewish practice) Jesus scolds them sharply for being too focused on human rules—even ritual ones—instead of God's laws.

MOSAIC LAW: WHAT GOD WANTS OF THE PEOPLE

Moses gives the Israelites their Law, which provided the structure for daily life. As recorded in the Bible, over half of the Law is about rituals for worship and sacrifice. A related concept is the concept of a person's ritual purity (or cleanliness), which is required for participation in both social and religious activities, since persons become unclean by physical contact with other unclean persons, animals, or objects. Other ways a person becomes unclean include the presence of skin lesions, bleeding, or a bodily discharge. Unclean persons are required to purify themselves to be again considered clean. Despite the Law's complexity, observant Jews considered it a privilege, not a burden, to observe its precepts, and they continue to do so today.

ON THE OTHER HAND . . .

The scribes and Pharisees are focusing on the disciples' failure to properly wash their hands prior to eating. But nowhere in the biblical texts of the Law are there regulations regarding the washing of hands before or after meals. These regulations, as described by Mark, are merely practices like those that arise in all societies; if they continue long enough, they can seem like sacred duties, sanctified as "the traditions of their elders."

This distinction is the source of the tension in these three readings. Moses and James both tell their people that they are recipients of a divine gift that requires special care, while Jesus is practically livid when the scribes and Pharisees react harshly to the disciples' failure to wash their hands according to Jewish practices.

Such a distinction between divine law and human practices is valuable for our own lives. When we hear of another's misdeeds, we should evaluate the seriousness of the offense before forming our own impression. Is this truly a serious moral matter? Or something less weighty? Carefully discerning the seriousness of such matters might reveal that things are not as grave as they first appear. Such care is an exercise in Christian charity, one way of acting on the word we have received as members of the Body of Christ.

DOERS OF THE WORD

The second reading for today begins a five-week series of selections from James, a letter that is classified among the so-called “catholic” (or universal) epistles because they are addressed to a general audience rather than to one particular community. Today’s text offers important advice for Christians of every generation. God is first cited as the author of all gifts, and in particular, reference is made to the gift of baptism by which we have been made the “first fruits” of the new creation.

What follows is advice based on a very Jewish understanding of the “word” as an active force, operative in the world. We are reminded that unless we, too, become “doers” of the word, our claim to faith is empty. Today and in subsequent weeks the author reminds us that it is equally important to do the “works” of love, for example, by caring for the “orphans and widows in their affliction.”

FEAST OF FAITH

What Jesus Did, What Jesus Said

The oldest account of what happened at the Last Supper comes to us not from the Gospels but from the First Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians: “I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus, on the night he was handed over, took bread, and, after he had given thanks, broke it and said, ‘This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me’ ” (11:23–24). In our celebrations of the Eucharist, we are obedient to Christ’s command to “do this.” The priest, acting in the person of Christ, does what Jesus did and says what Jesus said. He takes bread, gives thanks, breaks it, and gives it to the Lord’s disciples. He takes wine, gives thanks, shares it with us. We believe that the entire Eucharistic Prayer is consecratory, but we continue to hold these words of Jesus in special reverence. They are called the words of consecration, and the elevations of the host and chalice, the genuflections of the priest, and the optional ringing of a bell and use of incense remind us that we are in the presence of the Lord.

Cursillo Corner

Make a friend, be a friend, bring a friend to Christ!

WHAT IS A CURSILLO?

Cursillo is a Spanish word meaning short course. A Cursillo therefore is a short course in Christianity. While Cursillo originated in Spain in the 1940s, today Cursillo Weekends are given in more than 50 nations on 5 Continents. It is estimated that more than 2 million men and women of various races and languages have participated. There are approximately 5,000 Cursillistas in the Joliet Diocese.

To explain a Cursillo to someone who has never experienced it is difficult and somewhat mystifying. The reason behind the mystery is God. No one can fully explain how God touches each person in His special/unique way throughout the movement. For some, it is a total turnabout in their lives; for others, it is a grand awakening; for yet others, it is an enrichment of what they have already known and have been living. We do not promise anything or judge anyone – we simply offer the program and rely on the grace of God and the openness of the individual to produce its benefits.

The Cursillo is an opportunity to form and live in community with other Catholics and clergy members. It is immersed in Catholic Doctrine and the Sacraments, most importantly it is an encounter with Christ.

CURSILLO WEEKENDS RETURN!

We are excited to announce the return of Cursillo weekends this fall at the Carmelite Spiritual Center in Darien, Illinois. The fall schedule is as follows.

Men's 139th Weekend

September 23-26, 2021

Women's 131st Weekend

November 4-7, 2021

These 72-hour Cursillo weekends begin on Thursday evenings with meditation and silence. Daily Mass will be celebrated. There will be morning and night prayer, rosary, and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. Candidates may receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation as well as spiritual direction. You will listen to 15 Apostolic talks, ten given by laity and five given by clergy, and will take part in small discussion groups following each talk.

There is plenty of food, fun and fellowship as well! Transportation to and from the weekend will be provided.

To learn more about the Cursillo movement, or if you have an interest in attending a Cursillo Weekend, please contact Joliet Cursillo Lay Director Debi Kenny at Debra.L.Kenny@gmail.com or 630-569-6621. You will also find additional information on our website www.jolietcursillo.org

You are invited and encouraged to attend Alpha. It is a short course about Christianity that helps us explore some of the basic concepts that we may have forgotten or no longer make sense to us.

Now, more than ever, people are asking some of the most important questions of life as we face such uncertain times around the world. It is so important to process these current events and also the questions that come up in us, as we face time at home, isolation, and fear.

What is my purpose? What happens when I die? Why is there suffering? Why is this happening now? Can Jesus help me find the answers? If Gospel means "good news" and Jesus promised us joy, why do I not have it and how do I get it?

Alpha is a chance to ask these big questions and explore the Christian faith in a fun, pressure-free environment.

Who is Jesus? Why did He die? How can I have faith? Who is the Holy Spirit?

Are just a few of the topics we will be exploring and sharing. Each session includes food, music, a short film and a discussion where you can share what you think with a small group of people just like you. Bring a friend, bring your adult children (over age 17), your spouse or significant other, or just yourself, but please come and enjoy this journey. Join the conversation. The Alpha course is being offered in Catholic parishes all over the world and has helped many find great joy and deep faith in Jesus. Give it a try- nothing to lose!
