CONSOLATION FROM GOD

Today’s reading from Jeremiah, Israel’s sorrowful and suffering prophet, whose readings usually signal and prepare us to hear Jesus’ Gospel suffering, is from Jeremiah’s “Book of Consolation.” Jeremiah sets aside traditional sorrow and instead bids God’s chosen people—and us, as God’s baptized covenant people—to celebrate the Lord’s miraculous “harvest”: “Shout with joy; exult; proclaim your praise” (Jeremiah 31:7). In this “harvest,” God declares Israel already “delivered,” while promising to transform a “remnant” (31:7) into “an immense throng,” “gathered from the ends of the world” (31:8). Though these people are still in need, Jeremiah declares their tears already gone, replaced by God’s consolation and guidance to living waters. As a fitting response, the great “Harvest Psalm” makes us, at least spiritually, former “captives,” whose joyous return feels like “dreaming” (Psalm 126:1). Then, Mark’s Gospel—again—shows the prophetic vision for the world fulfilled as Jesus heals, and we ourselves are once again challenged to live more faithfully our baptismal covenant.

SIGHTLESS BARTIMAEUS’ VISION

At first, Bartimaeus is not yet “on the way”—Mark’s “Gospel code” for Jesus’ journey to Jerusalem and our journey of discipleship—but at least near the way, “by the roadside” (Mark 10:46). Still only on the sidelines, Bartimaeus cries out what becomes Christianity’s “Jesus Prayer”: “Jesus, son of David, have pity (most translations, mercy) on me” (Mark 10:47–48). Sightless, Bartimaeus is nonetheless fearless: “many rebuked him, telling him to be silent” (10:48). Sightless, Bartimaeus is already insightful: “son of David” acclaims Jesus Messiah. Seen in the context of baptism and discipleship, sightless Bartimaeus’s response resembles both journey to baptism as catechumen and pilgrimage from baptism as what Pope Francis calls “missionary disciples” (Evangelii Gaudium, Joy of the Gospel, 119–121).

RESPONDING LIKE BARTIMAEUS

Once healed, “illuminated” as in Baptism, Bartimaeus’ discipleship response to Jesus challenges us to examine our own. Again this week, Hebrews reminds us that Jesus is our merciful high priest. Though sinless, Jesus “is able to deal patiently with the ignorant and erring” (Hebrews 5:2) like all high priests. Hebrews invokes Melchizedek, whose meeting with Abraham signals the joining of God’s primeval cosmic covenant made with Noah and God’s scriptural covenant with Israel, leading to “the new and eternal covenant” sealed in Jesus’ Blood. Like Melchizedek, Jesus transcends history’s boundaries of race and nation to gather earth’s fragmented, even warring factions into the great harvest of a humanity renewed and redeemed. So our baptismal commitment and discipleship’s journey bid us become instruments of Christ’s unity and peace to all whom we encounter “on the way.”

Are we sitting still, isolated, safely on the sidelines? Or do we cry out, like Bartimaeus, for Jesus’ mercy, understanding that we are bound to extend to others, ceaselessly and unconditionally, the mercy that we ourselves need? As part of that mercy, then, are we cowed into safe, respectable silence by a world rejecting Christ’s countercultural teachings, or do we dare speak up and speak out on behalf of others?

RECOGNIZING JESUS

The star of today's Gospel is a panhandler. Bartimaeus is blind, yes, but he is probably also homeless and filthy, a real nuisance to respectable citizens. Even so, it is Bartimaeus who recognizes Jesus as the Messiah, places all his faith in him, throws aside everything he has (his cloak), begs him for mercy, receives new vision, and follows Jesus on the way to suffering and death in Jerusalem. How desperate will we have to get before we can do the same?

FEAST OF FAITH

The Sound of Communion

The priest receives Holy Communion, and then there is movement, a bustle of activity, as we prepare to join the Communion procession. This holy meal does not happen in silence! Instead, we sing together even as we rise and move forward in procession to the altar. We must change and move to receive the Eucharist, and fittingly so, since the Eucharist is transformative—it demands action of us, internal as well as external. We do not receive the sacrament in silence, but with a dialogue that is also a profession of faith: “The Body of Christ.” “Amen.” “The Blood of Christ.” “Amen.” We acknowledge the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist with our “Amen” of faith, but more, our “Amen” is also a prayer that we may become what we receive, the Body of Christ, living and active in the world. We receive him not that he may become a part of us, but that we may become a part of him—part, too, of all the others who receive him, the whole communion of believers. —Corinna Laughlin, Copyright © J. New film on Purgatory will get theatrical release Oct. 25 & 28

People have been wondering what awaits them after death since the beginning of time. And although much remains a secret, there have been many people through the ages who could see more – like Fulla Horak, St. Faustina Kowalska or St. Padre Pio. These mystics – people who have been graced by the visits of souls from Purgatory – are only some of the protagonists of this Michał Kondrat film.

The new film from the creator of "Love and Mercy: Faustina" and "Two Crowns" tells the story of souls living in bodies and souls that have already left this world. It is also a reminder – in film form – of the most outstanding theologians and scientists, who have been studying the state of human consciousness when the body dies.

Mass of Remembrance

For All Souls

November 2, 2021 7:00pm

All parishioners are invited to a special "Mass of Remembrance" for all Souls on Tuesday, November 2 at 7pm. Please be aware that only those who have died between October 1, 2020 and October 1, 2021 will be formally acknowledged during the Liturgy.

On All Souls Day, we not only remember the dead, but we apply our efforts through prayer, almsgiving, and the Mass to their release from Purgatory.

Praying for the dead is a Christian Obligation. In the modern world, when many have come to doubt the Church's teaching on Purgatory, the need for such prayers has only increased. The Church devotes the month of November to prayer for the Holy Souls in Purgatory, and participation in the Masses of All Souls Day is a good way to begin the month.

The Liturgy of the Hours

The Liturgy of the Hours, also known as the Divine Office or Breviary, is a collection of psalms, readings and prayers, recited or chanted at various hours of the day.

Once principally the domain of the clergy and religious, today it is again encouraged as the prayer of the entire Church. It provides an excellent opportunity for every Christian to fulfill the Biblical exhortation to “pray without ceasing” (1 Thes 5:16).

Beginning this Advent, the start of the new Liturgical Year, you are invited to join your fellow parishioners in the celebration of the Liturgy of the Hours here at Our Lady of Peace Church.

You can bring your own breviary or use your smartphone or tablet to follow the readings via the free app, ibreviary.org. You are welcome to attend all or any portion of the liturgy.

(Evening Prayer has already begun to be celebrated on Saturday and Sunday evenings. These initial services are ideal for those who are new to praying the Hours and wish to learn more.)

SATURDAY		SUNDAY

			(Daytime Prayer)
		6:30pm	Vespers (Evening Prayer)
		8:15pm	Compline (Night Prayer)

Praying the Office as a community is an integral part of the worship and supplication that God desires of us. Our participation powerfully joins us to the worldwide Church since the Office is prayed everyday by Catholics throughout the globe even as it has been throughout the centuries. What’s more, like holy Mass, it is a real participation in the heavenly liturgy itself.

Come, then, and experience this deeply biblical practice of prayer!

“Among the greatest influences upon my spiritual life has been the Divine Office. By means of it, I have learned how to “be” before God and that has opened me up to learning “the things of God” and “the ways of God.” I am still learning, but the Sacred Liturgy is a never-failing source of inspiration and direction. I recommend it to all!” — Rev. Michael C., MIC, Darien, IL

Calling all musicians, cantors, readers, servers and sacristans! Help us to enhance our celebration of the Hours by your faith-filled service. If interested, please contact Fr. Michael through the office.

ONE SUNDAY FOR THE WHOLE WORLD

Pope Francis' message for World Mission Sunday this year reflects on the theme: “We cannot but speak about what we have seen and heard” (Acts 4:20). He reminds us that, “as Christians, we cannot keep the Lord to ourselves,” as we “recall with gratitude all those men and women who by their testimony of life help us to renew our baptismal commitment to be generous and joyful apostles of the Gospel.”

UN DOMINGO PARA TODO EL MUNDO

El mensaje de Papa Francisco para el Domingo Mundial de las Misiones de esta año reflexiona sobre el tema: “No podemos dejar de hablar de lo que hemos visto y oído” (Hechos 4:20). Nos recuerda que “como Cristianos, no podemos guardarnos al Señor para nosotros,” como “recordamos con gratitud a todos aquellos hombres y mujeres que con su testimonio de vida nos ayudan a renovar nuestro compromiso bautismal de ser apóstoles generosos y gozosos del Evangelio.”
