MOVING TOWARD THE END OF HISTORY

The end is near! Many of us recall such predictions from religious sources, mostly small evangelical sects but even the larger Jehovah's Witnesses. Catholics, too. For instance, Pope Saint Clement of Rome declared the end is near for the year 90; his successor Pope Sylvester II for 1000; and Innocent III predicted 1284 as the world's end by adding 666 years to the date of Islam's beginning. The end is near! Today's Liturgy of the Word opens with Daniel's prediction of "a time unsurpassed in distress since nations began" (Daniel 12:1), for some "an everlasting horror and disgrace" (12:2). In today's Gospel, Jesus seems to describe precisely what Daniel's vision will look like: "In those days after that tribulation the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will be falling from the sky, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken" (Mark 13:24–25). The end is near! Well, at least the end is certain, based on these scriptures proclaimed ominously midway through this month of All Saints and All Souls.

LISTENING WITH JOYFUL HOPE

If the end is near or at least coming for certain, Someone else is even nearer, indeed with us already! For one thing, today's Hebrews reading offers us this blessed assurance: "by one offering (Jesus) has made perfect forever those who are being consecrated" (Hebrews 10:14). So, by the all-sufficient sacrifice of Christ, forgiveness is ours, our "consecration" having begun in Baptism. Christ's sacrifice, offered once and for all on the cross, is now made ever present in the Church's Eucharistic Sacrifice, the Mass. But even before we hear Hebrews proclaim such Good News, we need to listen with joyful hope to Daniel. For, at that very time Daniel declares "unsurpassed in distress," Daniel promises "at that time your people shall escape, everyone who is found written in the book" (Daniel 12:1). Recalling Hebrews again, the writing of Daniel's "book," namely the Book of Life, begins when our names are inscribed on the day of our baptism.

GOOD NEWS IN THE END

Seen then as positive, Daniel's predictions blossom even more beautifully in Jesus' Good News. Indeed, Jesus invokes that very image: "Learn a lesson from the fig tree" (Mark 13:28). Consider well: Jesus does not predict produce that comes forth withered, or even worse, poisoned, ending in (for many of us) winter's forthcoming thick clouds, deep snow, and brutal cold. Placing before our eyes instead a gloriously lovely and positive image, Jesus declares: "When its branch becomes tender and sprouts leaves, you know that summer is near" (12:28). So where is the "Gospel good" in today's passage? Precisely in what happens after "that tribulation" and "the powers being shaken" in the Gospel's opening lines (12:24–25). For Jesus promises that we will "see 'the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory'" (12:26). Jesus "will send out the angels and gather his elect from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of the sky" (12:27): Jesus' whole family gathered together, the little and lowly lifted up, the lost sheep found. Tender indeed is Jesus' mercy; blessed fruit that endures and nourishes us into eternity! So, we hope indeed that the end is near!

November 14 2021 The Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

GOD'S REIGN

By pointing to the end times, today's readings speak to the coming reign of God, when God will make all things new. In Christ, this time has already begun. We, by our energized watchfulness, can further God's reign. We can heal broken hearts, free captives, spread the Good News. Even so, the reign of God will not be complete without the second coming of Christ. Our weekly eucharistic gathering is a sign of the fullness of the end times. At Mass we join as an assembly to recall and to claim the story of Jesus as our own. Together we give thanks to God for the many gifts bestowed upon us. We receive nourishment in the simple but profound meal. And our weak and weary selves are invigorated and transformed by the power of Christ, so that we ourselves might become effective signs of God's reign present and to come.

FEAST OF FAITH

Blessing and Dismissal

At the beginning of Mass, the priest made the sign of the cross with us. At the conclusion of Mass, he makes the sign of the cross over us, a sign of blessing. We are then dismissed—not just let out, but sent forth with a mission “to love and serve the Lord.” Just as Jesus blessed his disciples as he ascended to heaven, so this leave-taking is joined to a blessing, a prayer for God's continuing protection. As we leave the church, we bear the invisible sign of the Master whom we follow. In the words of an ancient letter to Diognetus, “Christians are indistinguishable from other [people] either by nationality, language, or customs. They do not inhabit separate cities of their own, or speak a strange dialect, or follow an outlandish way of life. . . . And yet, there is something extraordinary about their lives” (Liturgy of the Hours, Vol. II, p. 840). We are ordinary people sent forth to live extraordinary lives, lives like Christ's own life—pouring ourselves out for others in prayer, service, and love.

Dignity of Life Ministry

The Respect Life Ministry exists to uphold the sanctity and dignity of all human life from conception to natural death.

As Pope John Paul II wrote, "We need to bring the Gospel of life to the heart of every man and woman and to make it penetrate every part of society (Evangelium vitae 80). Our goal is, therefore, to help you integrate the Respect Life message into the very life of your parish, school, or ministry."

Through education, advocacy, and prayer, this ministry works to protect and nurture human life at every stage of its existence.

With the utmost dedication, our volunteers organize and participate in the 40 Days for Life campaign that aims to end abortion through prayer and fasting, community outreach, and a peaceful all-day vigil.

The Fall Baby Bottle Campaign raises funds to provide counseling, parenting workshops, financial assistance, and post-abortion healing. The dignity of Life ministry has grounded their work in prayer as it is their most powerful resource. They help us understand, value, and become engaged by supporting the dignity of every person and especially by cherishing God's gift of life.

Greeter & Usher Ministry

In the Old Testament, ushers and greeters were called "gatekeepers."

Their ministry was so important that they were given living quarters in the temple. Members of this ministry reflect the warmth and welcome of Christ himself as they share the love and joy of their faith. In addition, they help us prepare for worship as we enter the church by creating a quiet and reverent atmosphere.

By assuring a welcoming presence and orderly environment at mass, they enhance the beauty of the Liturgy and become an instrument through whom God may be present to those in worship. Each volunteer commits to being punctual, humble, gracious, kind, available, faithful, and most of all prayerful.

We gratefully acknowledge our Greeters & Ushers.

The Liturgy of the Hours

The Liturgy of the Hours, also known as the Divine Office or Breviary, is a collection of psalms, readings and prayers, recited or chanted at various hours of the day. Once principally the domain of the clergy and religious, today it is again encouraged as the prayer of the entire Church. It provides an excellent opportunity for every Christian to fulfill the Biblical exhortation to “pray without ceasing” (1 Thes 5:16).

Beginning this Advent, the start of the new Liturgical Year, you are invited to join your fellow parishioners in the celebration of the Liturgy of the Hours here at Our Lady of Peace Church.

You can bring your own breviary or use your smartphone or tablet to follow the readings via the free app, ibreviary.org. You are welcome to attend all or any portion of the liturgy.

(Evening Prayer has already begun to be celebrated on Saturday and Sunday evenings. These initial services are ideal for those who are new to praying the Hours and wish to learn more.)

SATURDAY		SUNDAY
6:30pm	Vespers (Evening Prayer)	9:15am	Matins (Office of Readings)
8:15pm	Compline (Night Prayer)		Lauds (Morning Prayer)
		2:30pm	Terce, Sext or None (Daytime Prayer)
		6:30pm	Vespers (Evening Prayer)
		8:15pm	Compline (Night Prayer)

Praying the Office as a community is an integral part of the worship and supplication that God desires of us. Our participation powerfully joins us to the worldwide Church since the Office is prayed everyday by Catholics throughout the globe even as it has been throughout the centuries. What’s more, like holy Mass, it is a real participation in the heavenly liturgy itself.

Come, then, and experience this deeply biblical practice of prayer!

“Among the greatest influences upon my spiritual life has been the Divine Office. By means of it, I have learned how to “be” before God and that has opened me up to learning “the things of God” and “the ways of God.” I am still learning, but the Sacred Liturgy is a never-failing source of inspiration and direction. I recommend it to all!” — Rev. Michael C., MIC, Darien, IL

CALLING ALL MUSICIANS, CANTORS, READERS, SERVERS AND SACRISTANS! HELP US TO ENHANCE OUR CELEBRATION OF THE HOURS BY YOUR FAITH-FILLED SERVICE. IF INTERESTED, PLEASE CONTACT FR. MICHAEL THROUGH THE OFFICE.
