John 20:1

A NEW DAY

The story of Easter reveals that the world has begun a new day. The darkness of the Crucifixion has opened into the light of Easter. Like the dawn that gradually opened to the disciples on the first Easter morning, we slowly begin to see what the light of faith reveals. Death will not have the final word, because Christ is risen and we will share in his resurrection. Injustice and suffering will not continue forever, because God's victory over sin has begun, and will be completed when Christ returns. Evil has met its match, because through Jesus, God has brought a new energy into the world. This energy can be found in followers of Christ who are free to love, empowered by the Spirit to embrace everyone, without exception. May we bear the light of Christ, with humility and courage, into our troubled world.

RE-INTERPRETING OUR WORLD

Our Gospel reading from John captures the initial confusion of Jesus' followers on Easter morning. Mary thinks the body has been stolen, and the two disciples see an empty tomb, but do not understand. We can sympathize with their initial misreading, as they are interpreting what happened within how they understand the way the world works: Jesus was crushed by the authorities—end of story. Jesus' later appearances to them will dramatically shift their perception of God, the world, and themselves.

This work of re-interpreting the world in light of the death and resurrection of Jesus continues today. In his passion and death, Jesus showed that true power, God's power, emerges through humility and forgiveness. We join in the death and resurrection of Jesus when we surrender the attractions of power, status, and comfort, and embrace non-violence, service, and care for the suffering. The path to bringing peace and goodness to the world is not through seeking control, but through sacrificial love.

BOTH PETER AND CORNELIUS

Peter's speech in today's passage from Acts summarizes the ministry, death, and resurrection of Jesus. The speech occurs within his encounter with Cornelius, a Roman centurion and his household. We can perhaps imagine being Cornelius, led by God to hear the story of Jesus. Or we can imagine being Peter, led by the Spirit to share the Good News of Jesus. As followers of Christ, we are called to embrace both, in our imaginations and our lives.

We are continually called to hear the story of Jesus. We know that God's Good News has entered us, but also know that it has not. There is much in our hearts that needs conversion and begs for God's mercy, so we always seek God's challenging and healing word. We are also continually called to share the story of Jesus, sometimes directly but more often in our actions. Our lives can speak of God's love, healing and encouraging others. We are both Peter and Cornelius.

Thank you to everyone who has already shown their devotion to the works of the Lord with a gift to the 2022 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal (CMAA). Every gift, large or small, is appreciated! If we all contribute as generously as our circumstances allow, we can meet our parish's CMAA goal of $95,800.

If you have yet to make your gift, please prayerfully reflect on how you can best support the CMAA. If we raise more than our goal, 70 percent of the amount over goal will be returned to us for our use. This is an amazing opportunity for our parish.

Pledge envelopes are still available in the church. You can also return the pledge card you received in the mail from the diocese or make a gift online at jolietdioceseappeal.org.

April 17, 2022 Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

EVERYTHING IS CHANGED

Easter changes everything. Having been raised from the dead, Jesus shatters the frightful images that haunt humanity. Betrayal, torture, crucifixion, death, burial—these terrors pale in the brilliant glory of Jesus resurrected. Today's psalm guides our response to God's power: "it is wonderful in our eyes." Today is indeed a day for wonder, for gasping in astonishment at Jesus' resurrection. For all of human history, death had been final. In the Acts of the Apostles, though, Peter testifies that Jesus, who was publicly executed, was raised to life by God. John's Gospel admits that the disciples "did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead." Even Jesus' closest friends were not expecting this innovation: life after death. In response to the Easter miracle, Paul tells us to become "a fresh batch of dough." Everything, even our very selves, must become new. Easter changes everything.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

At the Mass during the Day

O God, who on this day,
 through your Only Begotten Son,
 have conquered death
 and unlocked for us the path to eternity, grant, we pray, that we who keep the solemnity of the Lord's Resurrection
 may, through the renewal brought by your Spirit, rise up in the light of life.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you
 in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
 God, for ever and ever.

Reflection question:

How can I keep the solemnity of the Lord's Resurrection in my daily life?

BEGINNING AND END

Faith is the beginning and the end is love.
 —St. Ambrose

WE REMEMBER YOU, O RISEN LORD

We remember you, O risen Lord,
 New Covenant at the feast of the cross.
 Your resurrection dresses the table
 for the bread of heaven and the cup of salvation.

Blessed are you!

Deacon Paul Brachle Food Pantry

Please help the less fortunate with a charitable gift. Your donation allows us to supply the needy with food from week to week. The recipients graciously thank you and God continues to bless you.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

We are requesting that if you wish to make a donation of food items to our food pantry, please do so on Wednesdays between 7:30 and 10:30am when the volunteers are on site. We have had numerous donations of expired food left outside and many of which have exploded due to the freezing temperatures. The food donations are also attracting rodents. We greatly appreciate your donations and kindly ask that you bring them directly to the volunteers as noted above.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Are you ready to answer Jesus' call to live the Works of Mercy?

The Divine Mercy Cenacle of Our Lady of Peace is in need of volunteers to help make our Lord's Divine Mercy Sunday successful and joyful. Please prayerfully consider bringing your talents to help on His Feast Day!

We are looking for help with:

"I demand from you deeds of mercy, which are to arise out of love for Me. You are to show mercy to your neighbors always and everywhere. You must not shrink from this or try to excuse or absolve yourself from it.

Yes, the first Sunday after Easter is the Feast of Mercy, but there must also be acts of mercy, and I demand the worship of My mercy through the solemn celebration of the Feast and through the veneration of the image which is painted. By means of this image I shall grant many graces to souls. It is to be a reminder of the demands of My mercy, because even the strongest faith is of no avail without works." (diary, 742)

RCIA

Robert Hammond

When I began RCIA, I felt that my past faith journey would be unchanged. I could not have imagined the depth to which my relationship with God would become. With the direction of Deacon Larry, my sponsor Lee, and the other sponsors and candidates, I have a significantly better relationship with God and look forward to joining the wonderful community at Our Lady of Peace.

RCIA

Alex Miret

I was first introduced to the church at my baptism and lived a Catholic life until my teenage years where I had disconnected with God. Going through life I felt something was missing and I reconnected with God. The RCIA program helped me rekindle my love for God and also reminded of Gods love for all of us. I highly recommend the RCIA program for those who wish to learn more about the faith. Through my experience with God so far in life, he has a funny way of leading us back to him.

RCIA

Ryan Pinkowski

RCIA with OLOP was a welcoming, non-intimidating environment where someone like myself, with no prior foundation in the Church, can learn about the tenets of Catholicism. The presentations given by Deacon Larry and the sponsors were all very informative and their personal testimonies moving. I'd recommend anyone who is interested in joining the Catholic Church at least attend the RCIA program to experience it for themselves.

RCIA

Zach Mory

I began RCIA at Our Lady of Peace as a way to bring my family closer together spiritually. I grew up Protestant and my wife is Catholic, so my goal was to bridge that gap. As I progressed through the program though, my faith grew in so many myriad ways as I learned from each class. The program does a wonderful job of introducing people to many aspects of the Catholic faith, with the keyword there being faith.

As a person who has had many past doubts regarding religion, the more I learned about what faith means and how it plays a part in every Catholic person's life, the more I was able to open up my heart. The RCIA program at OLOP does an incredible job of guiding each candidate through the intricacies of Catholicism. My relationship with God and my understanding of the church has grown exponentially since beginning the program. I can't say enough about how happy I have been with the guidance I received there.

If you have doubts about whether or not to join, please don't be afraid to do it! There is so much to be gained via RCIA on your personal spiritual journey.

RCIA

Alan Maley

RCIA has been a great blessing. I want to thank the Alpha Community, Father Michael, Deacon Larry and Sue Kotrbaty for encouraging me to search for how the Lord is always directing all of us to successfully completing the ministry given at conception. With the help of the Holy Spirit and the prayers of my confirmation sponsor, family, friends and fellow parishioners; may I continue to "run the race".

April 2022

Dear Friends,

On the weekend of April 23-24, our diocese will take up a second collection for the Catholic Home Missions Appeal.

Home mission dioceses are those dioceses in the United States and its territories that need outside help to provide basic pastoral services, such as the Mass, the sacraments, religious education, and ministry training for priests, deacons, religious sisters and laypeople. These dioceses often face fragile financial situations, vast distances or difficult terrain. Nearly 40% of the dioceses in the United States and its territories are considered home missions.

We are one Catholic Church. What happens to one of us, affects us all. As Pope Francis notes in Fratelli Tutti, "we need to develop the awareness that nowadays we are either all saved together or no one is saved." (Paragraph 137).

Let us remember our brothers and sisters in Christ in home mission dioceses so they may share fully in our Catholic faith.

Paz y bien,
Most Reverend Ronald A. Hicks
Bishop of Joliet

2nd collection next week!

STRENGTHENING THE CHURCH AT HOME

I should no longer say that I have neighbors to help, but that I must myself be a neighbor to others.

Pope Francis, Fratelli Tutti, no. 81

The ten counties of southern New Mexico that constitute the Diocese of Las Cruces have a small population spread across an area the size of the entire state of Ohio. Given a population density of only 17 people per square mile, priests often travel long distances over rugged mountainous and desert terrain to serve the faithful in local parishes. Despite the challenge of accessibility and a high poverty rate, the faithful of the diocese assist each other in creative ways to form disciples.

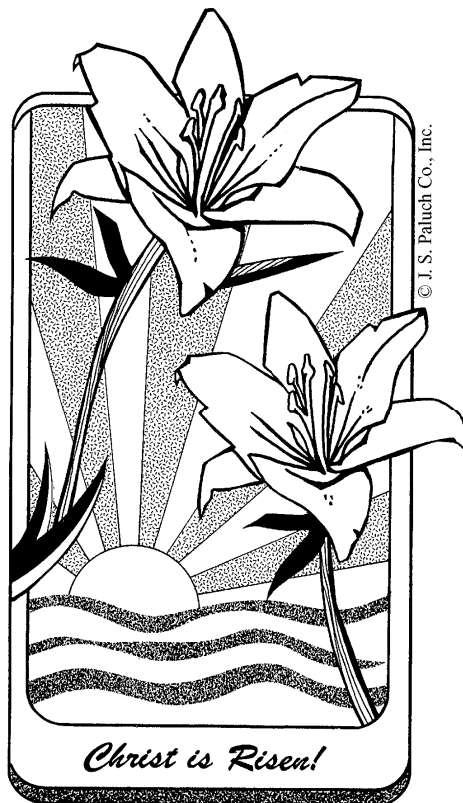

With a diocesan poverty rate ranging from 13% to 29%, parishes of limited means lack resources to provide catechetical textbooks and the other religious education materials that volunteer catechists need so they can provide children and youth with quality religious education. Thanks to the generosity of local parishioners and support from Catholic Home Missions, the Diocese of Las Cruces has implemented a Mission Textbook Fund. Needy parishes and missions can apply for and receive the funds they need to purchase materials for their catechists to use in religious education programs. Since 2015, 18 parishes and missions in the diocese have benefited from the program. When you participate in the Catholic Home Missions Appeal, you become a neighbor to Catholics in Las Cruces and other home mission dioceses across the country that benefit from the collection.

For more information about the Catholic home missions, visit www.usccb.org/home-missions.

What Is a Home Mission Diocese?

Home mission dioceses are those Catholic dioceses in the United States, its territories, and former territories that cannot provide basic pastoral services without outside help. Basic pastoral services include Mass, the sacraments, religious education, and ministry training for priests, deacons, religious sisters, and laypeople. Nearly 40% of dioceses in the United States and its territories are considered home missions.
