PEACE

The sixth Sunday of Easter moves us toward the feast of Pentecost and the coming of the Holy Spirit to the early Church. Today's Gospel describes Jesus at the Last Supper, foretelling the coming of the Spirit to the community of Jesus. Jesus combines the promise of the Spirit with his gift of peace to his disciples. He foresees that the community must be grounded in his love, which provides peace, to face the tumult of the Crucifixion, and later, the trials of the early Church. Grounded in Jesus, the community can then be open to the Spirit who will continually guide, remind, and renew them in their life together. The gift of peace from Jesus is not a worldly peace through which the powerful crush opposition. It is not a complacent or private peace. The peace of Jesus instead seeks and works toward peace throughout the world, guided by the Spirit.

RESPONSIBLE LEADERSHIP

Today's passage from Acts captures the beginning and the conclusion of what became known as the Jerusalem Council. It is well worth studying all of Acts 15, meant to provide an example of responsible leadership for the wider Church. There was substantial conflict within the community over what is necessary for unity in the diverse community of Jews and Gentiles. We can notice some key characteristics of the actions of the leadership.

The leaders acknowledged the reality of a significant conflict without minimizing it. They received and fully honored the diverse experiences of persons of different backgrounds. They worked with an accepted authority structure and a process to move toward resolution. They were committed to discern the action and will of the Spirit, with a deep respect for testimony about how the Spirit was working. They avoided placing unneeded burdens on anyone. And afterward, they continued to observe the ongoing action of the Spirit as the decision was implemented.

WHAT IS ESSENTIAL?

The issues weighed by the Jerusalem Council in our passage from Acts were related to circumcision as a requirement, and to table fellowship. A strong theological tradition held that traditional practices were essential, and the community genuinely sought to maintain continuity with the roots of their faith. Peter's observation about how the Spirit was actively working in their midst pointed the leaders in a new direction. Then James reminded them that the scriptural tradition also pointed to fully welcoming the Gentiles into God's community.

It is a profound challenge for leaders in our own parishes when encountering issues that can fracture a community. What is essential and what is not? What are we called to embrace, or called to lay down? Acknowledging conflict and working toward resolution is an essential function for our parishes, because Christ calls us to live in unity. We are called to open our hearts, mine our tradition, and observe the activity of the Spirit.

RETURNING TO ORDINARY LIFE

Six weeks into our Easter rejoicing, the Church gives us readings today that start preparing us for a return to ordinary life. The Acts of the Apostles and the Gospel both dwell on proper daily behavior for followers of Jesus, while the reading from Revelation reminds us why we bother with laws at all. In Acts, leaders of the church meet to discuss which essential elements of the Mosaic Law converts must obey if they wish to be disciples of Jesus Christ. John's Gospel reflects back to the Last Supper discourse when Jesus himself emphasizes the importance of obeying God's commandments. Observing God's law, says Jesus, shows a desire to be intimate with the Lord. We follow rules not for their own sake, but to love God and neighbor better. This more excellent love brings us closer to Revelation's vision of paradise, gleaming with "the splendor of God."

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Sixth Sunday of Easter

Grant, almighty God,
 that we may celebrate with heartfelt devotion
 these days of joy,
 which we keep in honor of the risen Lord,
 and that what we relive in remembrance
 we may always hold to in what we do.
 Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
 God, for ever and ever.

THE LITURGY OF THE HOURS

“The Office has been drawn up and arranged in such a way that not only clergy but also religious and indeed laity may participate in it, since it is the prayer of the whole people of God. . . . [T]he prayer can be adapted to suit the way of life and vocation of different groups using the Liturgy of the Hours.”

Adult Catechism Opportunities

Want to grow in knowledge of your faith? Then take advantage of one or more of these four opportunities to learn about the teachings of Christ and the way of life to which He calls us:

- 1st Sundays: Divine Revelation and the Creed
- 2nd Sundays: Liturgy and Sacraments
- 3rd Sundays: Human Flourishing and the Ten Commandments
- 4th Sundays: Christian Prayer Life and the Lord's Prayer

There is no homework and no preparation required for participation. Just bring your Catechism of the Catholic Church (available at most bookstores) and together we will read and reflect. You will be invited to ask questions and share insights as you feel comfortable.

Gather at 2:45 pm in the school
(following 2:30 pm Daytime Prayer from the Liturgy of the Hours)

Hear the Scriptures!

For centuries upon centuries the Word of God was not something that people primarily read but rather heard. Would you like to experience the Word of God in this unique way? Then join us on Saturday evenings for the opportunity to listen to extended readings from both the New and Old Testaments.

Together, we will make our way through the entire Bible, meditatively listening to 10 minutes from the New Testament and then 10 minutes from the Old Testament.

Watch your imagination come alive as you envision in your mind's eye the sacred words that God has deigned to speak to humanity. Experience the power of God's Word to give insight, heal memories and emotions, and renew you in both body and spirit.

Join us in the meeting space beneath the church on Saturdays at approximately 6:50 pm! (following 6:30 Vespers)

Communal Rosary

Looking for a way to grow closer to Jesus and Mary? Then join us Saturday evenings for a communal recitation of the holy rosary with shared meditations. Using randomly selected passages from the Sacred Scriptures as an aid to our reflections, we pray each decade and then briefly share with one another our individual insights into the mystery we are meditating upon.

Nervous about speaking in front of others? Don't worry! Sharing is optional. But come anyways because you will still benefit from the amazing ways that the Holy Spirit works through the group as a whole.

Our schedule is as follows:

1st Saturdays: Joyful Mysteries

2nd Saturdays: Luminous Mysteries

3rd Saturdays: Sorrowful Mysteries

4th Saturdays: Glorious Mysteries

5th Saturdays: T.B.D.

Gather in meeting space beneath the church

Saturdays at approximately 7:15 pm
(following 6:30 pm Vespers and 6:50 pm Biblical Reading Group)

Come, let the Blessed Virgin Mary and the Word of God renew your life through the power of prayer and meditation!
