CONTINUING JESUS' MINISTRY

The celebration of the Ascension of our Lord occurs distinctively this year, when the two most detailed descriptions of the event, both written by Luke the evangelist, are brought together in today's readings. We hear both the concluding verses from Luke's Gospel, the first volume of his work, and the first verses of Acts, his second volume. For Luke, the Ascension is the hinge of his two-volume work. The evangelist apparently thought the story of the Ascension was important enough to tell twice. While his first telling emphasizes the meaning of Jesus' earthly ministry, the second telling shifts to how the community of his followers are commissioned to continue this same ministry. Now the apostles, and by implication all who follow Jesus, will bring healing and hope to a world that desperately needs them. Luke reminds us that we the Church are also summoned by Jesus to participate in his work.

ABSENCE AND PRESENCE

Appreciating the Ascension within the larger story of Jesus can be difficult. This is partly because of the mystical features of Luke's two descriptions, and also the lack of description in the other Gospels. The Ascension describes both the absence and the presence of Jesus. Why did Jesus have to leave? As Jesus told his disciples, his departure makes possible his continuing presence in a new way, through the work of the Spirit beginning at Pentecost.

The Ascension is more than a departure, for it describes how the bodily, human Jesus is now "at the right hand of God," and that the Father exalts Jesus as Lord of heaven and earth. We need to hold these two together: that Jesus knows our human trials and joys and walks compassionately with us; and Jesus also is our Lord, who pushes us out of our comfort zones toward Christian maturity, and holds us accountable.

WITNESSES

In the descriptions of the Ascension in today's readings, Jesus tells the disciples "You are witnesses" or "you will be my witnesses." The image of witness evokes a legal proceeding, where a person affirms the truth of an event. Sometimes physical evidence, such as a DNA test, serves as witness to the truth. This same word is used again and again in Acts, as the apostles witnessed to the Resurrection, or to the whole story of Jesus. We are called to witness the truth of the Gospel.

We might witness in at least three ways. In dialogue with others, we can speak the witness, by explicitly sharing the biblical story and what it means for us. We can do the witness, by aligning our actions and lifestyle so as to share love for others. We can be the witness, in our fundamental openness and faithful response to God, and in our grace-filled personal presence with others. We are the best evidence of the truths of our faith.

The Ascension of the Lord

SENT FORTH

Today we celebrate Jesus' return to heaven. If we struggle to know how to feel about this event, we take our cue from Jesus' disciples. These disciples are first-hand witnesses to the Ascension, returning afterword to Jerusalem, where "they were continually in the temple praising God." Long-time companions of the Lord, they surely feel the pain of physical separation from Jesus. Yet they praise God continually. They accept God's plan, looking forward to the day when Christ will come again. As our reading from Hebrews affirms, Christ will return to "bring salvation to those who eagerly await him." This Good News is almost too much to take in; the Acts of the Apostles explains that an angel has to wake the disciples from their stupor, reminding them to start the Lord's work. Today's readings are our own angel, sending us forth in joyful hope.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

The Ascension of the Lord

At the Mass during the Day

Gladden us with holy joys, almighty God,
and make us rejoice with devout thanksgiving,
for the Ascension of Christ your Son
is our exaltation,
and, where the Head has gone before in glory,
the Body is called to follow in hope.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

Reflection question:

Why is the Ascension a cause for joy?

Experience the Peace only Jesus can give

Hear the Scriptures!

For centuries upon centuries the Word of God was not something that people primarily read but rather heard. Would you like to experience the Word of God in this unique way? Then join us on Saturday evenings for the opportunity to listen to extended readings from both the New and Old Testaments.

Together, we will make our way through the entire Bible, meditatively listening to 10 minutes from the New Testament and then 10 minutes from the Old Testament.

Watch your imagination come alive as you envision in your mind's eye the sacred words that God has deigned to speak to humanity. Experience the power of God's Word to give insight, heal memories and emotions, and renew you in both body and spirit.

Join us in the meeting space beneath the church on Saturdays at approximately 6:50 pm! (following 6:30 Vespers)

Communal Rosary

Looking for a way to grow closer to Jesus and Mary? Then join us Saturday evenings for a communal recitation of the holy rosary with shared meditations. Using randomly selected passages from the Sacred Scriptures as an aid to our reflections, we pray each decade and then briefly share with one another our individual insights into the mystery we are meditating upon.

Nervous about speaking in front of others? Don't worry! Sharing is optional. But come anyways because you will still benefit from the amazing ways that the Holy Spirit works through the group as a whole.

Our schedule is as follows:

1st Saturdays: Joyful Mysteries
2nd Saturdays: Luminous Mysteries
3rd Saturdays: Sorrowful Mysteries
4th Saturdays: Glorious Mysteries
5th Saturdays: T.B.D.

Gather in meeting space beneath the church

Saturdays at approximately 7:15 pm
(following 6:30 pm Vespers and 6:50 pm Biblical Reading Group)

Come, let the Blessed Virgin Mary and the Word of God renew your life through the power of prayer and meditation!

Seniors, what a fun time we had in Maui!

The day was filled with wonderful island songs from Cary Kanno and a delicious Luau luncheon. With 75 seniors and our parish priests attending we shared an afternoon of laughter and fellowship.

Looking forward to seeing you in June –
Hint “Happy Days” are ahead!
