EYES FIXED ON THE GOAL

In today's Gospel passage, Jesus sent the seventy-two out to prepare people's hearts and minds for him. The disciples whom he sent were to rely on the hospitality of those whom they served, and above all, to proclaim the kingdom of God. When they returned, joyful that so many had been healed through Christ's power, Jesus told them that true joy is to know our names are written in heaven. In other words, we must keep our eyes fixed on the ultimate goal, to be with God for eternity. In the heavenly Jerusalem, we will find comfort and overflowing nourishment. Our hearts will know joy beyond what we can imagine. Saint Paul tells us today that knowing the grace of Jesus Christ changes everything, giving new perspective, peace, and mercy.

CALLED TO HIGHER THINGS

Think about a typical day for you. From the time you awake until your day ends, you may be busy, focused on work or family with little time to pause except perhaps a few moments for lunch or dinner. Most of us would say this is an accurate description of life as we know it. And if we are honest with ourselves, we see much good that comes from the attention we pay to the people in our lives and the tasks that we accomplish. We may even be mindful of our call to do these things with and through the Lord as we go about our lives. Yet we must remember that we are also called to higher things. We are in the world but not of it. Our ultimate goal is to be with God for eternity, and all our activities, tasks, and interactions must bear this great purpose in mind.

THE KINGDOM OF GOD IS AT HAND

Jesus sent the seventy-two to proclaim the kingdom of God. They were to show people God's love by the way in which they lived. They were to travel simply, with only the provisions that were needed, rely on the good will of the people they served, and care for those who were in need. While some of us are called to live as missionaries, visiting places far from the comfort of home, most of us are called to live faithfully in our daily lives, where we are, with family and friends, co-workers, fellow citizens of our local towns and cities, our country, and the world. Whether we go to far-off lands to serve and share Christ's message of mercy or we serve in simple ways at home and in our local place, we must remember that whenever we reach out to heal, forgive, and show compassion, the kingdom of God is at hand. Christ is with us and will remain with us.

Your participation in the CMAA is important.

If you have not had a chance to participate in the Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal (CMAA) this year, there is still time. Please look for the mailing which will be arriving in homes shortly.

As your pastor, I encourage you to prayerfully reflect on God's gifts to you and to give a gift to the CMAA. Participation is the key to a successful appeal and a chance for our parish to receive a parish rebate, too.

Every gift helps!

If you do not receive this mailing and would like to make a gift to the CMAA, please call the Diocese of Joliet Development Office at (815) 838-8515. Or, if you wish to make your gift online, please visit www.jolietdioceseappeal.org.

GOOD NEWS IS ON THE WAY

This week, in the midst of summer, the scriptures greet us with joy, peace, mercy, and more peace! Sounds a little like Advent, doesn't it? We often associate the prophet Isaiah with that preparatory season, and our first reading rings with such words as exult, comfort, and rejoice. The Israelites had reason to rejoice, for they had returned, come home, to a rebuilt Jerusalem from their exile in Babylon.

In the Gospel, the seventy-two disciples who were sent out have their own "homecoming," returning to Jesus from spreading the Good News of the Kingdom and preparing people for the "advent" of Jesus into their cities and towns on his long road to Jerusalem. Like the exiles in Isaiah, the disciples return rejoicing.

The Good News, the Kingdom of God, is coming, even in summer. As today's psalm reminds us, "Shout joyfully to God, all the earth!"

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Rejoice and be glad for I will spread prosperity over Jerusalem like a river, and the wealth of nations like an overflowing torrent (Isaiah 66:10-14c).

Psalm — Let all the earth cry out to God with joy (Psalm 66).

Second Reading — May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ (Galatians 6:14-18).

Gospel — Jesus sends his disciples out in pairs to bring his peace and proclaim the kingdom of God (Luke 10:1-12, 17-20 [1-9]).

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

O God, who in the abasement of your Son have raised up a fallen world, fill your faithful with holy joy, for on those you have rescued from slavery to sin you bestow eternal gladness. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Reflection question:

Do those around me see in me the joy of someone who has been rescued from sin?

PRIZES!

Dear Parishioners,

We need your help in evangelizing our youth.

Each summer Franciscan University in Steubenville, OH offers a dynamic faith experience to teenage youth through their summer conferences. With nearly 50,000 attendees each year, it is, in my opinion, the greatest youth evangelization effort in the world.

As you may know, on July 8 -10, we are going to be taking a group of youth to one of these conferences. Currently, we have 8 teens, 2 chaperons and one priest signed up to attend. We are now partnering with Holy Trinity Parish and thus we will be traveling with them and over 25 other teens.

The total cost for one student or chaperon is $300. To make the conference attractive from a cost standpoint, we have asked each attendee to pay only $100. Thus, we are looking for donations to cover the other $200 fee per person. I invite you to prayerfully consider offering some type of financial assistance to one of our teens or chaperons as a way to support them as they seek to encounter Jesus and have a dynamic faith experience this summer. If this is something you would like to do you can put your donation in an envelope and designate it for Franciscan Youth Conference. Feel free to drop it off either in the collection basket or at the parish office.

God is awesome and He is going to do some amazing things in the life of our youth. Thank you for any help you can offer to support this mission.

God Bless,

Fr. Mark

Our parish will be sponsoring the annual summer Blood Drive as part the City of Darien program on Saturday, July 16th in the gym. I am in need of volunteers to help register donors and serve refreshments. The time is from 8:15 AM to 2:15 PM. Confirmation candidates, Girl & Scouts BSA, & high school students are welcome to volunteer for their service hours. If you are willing to work all or part of the time please contact Rosemarie Courtney, coordinator, at 630-964-8415 or rdcourtney1940@gmail.com.

Our blood is the lifeline of our families, community, and that of the world. To this day, research done by man has not been able to manufacture it. Blood is purely and simply a human resource, given by one human being for another person in need. Each day of every year blood centers are faced with the challenge of collecting enough blood to meet the region's blood supply demands. It's a difficult task on an average day, but even more during the summer and holiday seasons. Accidents, illness, and injuries know no age, race, sex, religion, or social status. They certainly do not recognize the lazy hazy days of summer or activities at holiday time. The lack of blood during these times may result in insufficient blood for patient care in our community.

You can help prevent the shortage of blood by donating a pint of your blood on Saturday, July 16th between 8:30 AM and 2:00 PM here at Our Lady of Peace in the Gym. Last year we fell 5 pints short of our goal of 50 pints. This being the 30th anniversary of the 1st blood drive held on the 3rd Saturday of July in our gym I hope we make the goal of 50 pints this year.

Any healthy adult age 17 or older who weighs at least 110 lbs. can donate their blood. It will take you approximately 1 hour. Bring a photo ID with you and eat & drink before coming. Appointments can be made by calling 877-258-4825 or by visiting vitalant.org. Using the code ORD0DR98. Walk-ins are also welcome.

If you have any questions please call, Rosemarie Courtney at 630-964-8415 or email Rosemarie at rdcourtney1940@gmail.com
