REJECTION AND DIVISION?

Tomorrow is the Solemnity of the Assumption. Mary stands with the “great cloud of witnesses” described in Hebrews: those who kept their eyes firmly fixed on Jesus. We may not be thinking of Mary when we hear Jesus’ harsh words in today’s Gospel, but when she said “yes” to Gabriel, it carried the risk of the rejection and division that Jesus describes. As the early Christians surely knew, to hold Jesus as the sole leader and perfecter of faith meant that you would likely find yourself divided from those in your household who held other beliefs. This occurrence is not unknown in our own time and place, and many of us surely know a household divided on the issue of religion, even if the divisions are occurring solely through indifference. A life of faith lived to the full will likely eventually call on us to separate ourselves somehow, keeping our gaze firmly on Jesus, so we will also one day join the great cloud of witnesses.

FIRE IN THE MUD

Prophets have been described as being on fire with God’s message. Today, that fire in Jeremiah has to keep burning in the bottom of a muddy cistern. The rulers of his own people (including Judah’s king, Zedekiah) have placed him there for speaking an unpopular, if truthful, message to them. His own leave him there, mired in the mud, to starve and die. It takes a foreigner, an outsider, to convince Judah’s king that Jeremiah ought to be rescued, his life spared to continue as God’s prophet. As so often happens in the lives of the prophets, the help and saving power of God are shown through unexpected people in unexpected ways. We can often find ourselves mired in mud of one sort or another. Do we truly have the fire of God’s message in us, so that we can look for our rescue from places we might not expect?

SPIRIT FIRE IN THE SUMMER

A generation or two ago, these Summer Sundays in Ordinary Time would have been known as Sundays “of Pentecost.” That naming convention helped recall that the Spirit’s Pentecost fire was carrying us through all the Sundays until the end of the liturgical year. Though we may no longer use that name for these Sundays, the underlying reality is the same. The fire that Jesus speaks about today is the blaze of the Spirit. The fire he spoke about when he told his followers they were light for the world was the flame of the Spirit lighting the lamp of discipleship. It takes courageous disciples to allow the blazing fire of which Jesus speaks into their lives, to allow its light, warmth, and even cleansing to work in them and through them. Though we may not want to think about the heat of the Spirit’s fire on a summer Sunday, that Spirit is always with us, burning within.

Your participation in the CMAA is important.

If you have not had a chance to participate in the Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal (CMAA) this year, there is still time. Please look for the mailing which will be arriving in homes shortly.

As your pastor, I encourage you to prayerfully reflect on God's gifts to you and to give a gift to the CMAA. Participation is the key to a successful appeal and a chance for our parish to receive a parish rebate, too.

Every gift helps!

If you do not receive this mailing and would like to make a gift to the CMAA, please call the Diocese of Joliet Development Office at (815) 838-8515. Or, if you wish to make your gift online, please visit www.jolietdioceseappeal.org.

PROPHETS

We reflect upon the voice of the prophet in this Sunday's readings. We hear of the suffering and the rescue of Jeremiah. We hear how Jesus anticipates his suffering and death. As with Jeremiah and Jesus, the prophets were sent by God to the leaders and people of Israel. A prophet is one who speaks truth to the powerful, exposing their darker hidden motives and injustices. The prophet presents a way forward that aligns with God's purposes. A prophet can force people away from a comfortable neutrality or indifference. The prophet creates an urgency to make a choice: Are we content with the status quo, or are we to change our ways and pursue a new and better path? Today, we may also ask, how do we identify and respond to prophets of our time? How might we provide a prophetic voice in our Church and in our world?

Sunday: Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Monday: The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary
Tuesday: St. Stephen of Hungary
Friday: St. John Eudes
Saturday: St. Bernard

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

O God, who have prepared for those who love you good things which no eye can see, fill our hearts, we pray, with the warmth of your love, so that, loving you in all things and above all things, we may attain your promises, which surpass every human desire. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Reflection question:

What has God promised to me?

Celebrate the Solemnity of the Assumption

Monday, August 15th

7:30 am & 7:00 pm

Please note that the Assumption is not a holy day of obligation this year in the US since it falls on a Monday.

Join Us in Praying a Novena to St. Monica

St. Monica lived in the 4th century and was the mother of the great St. Augustine. She is the patron saint of conversions because it was by her many prayers and supplications to God that her son changed his pagan behavior and became Christian. If you have a child or know someone who has gone astray from God or has stopped practicing their Catholic Faith, please join us in praying a novena to St. Monica for that person's conversion. It begins Thursday, August 18th and ends Friday, August 26th. St. Monica's feast day is August 27th.

Please add your much-needed prayers to the novena so that we may witness the prodigal return of our greater Catholic family, back to worship and fellowship in Our Lady of Peace parish home and throughout the Universal Church.

How to Pray the Novena to St. Monica

For nine consecutive days, August 18 – 26, pray the Daily Novena Prayer. Follow with a time of brief meditation. Conclude with Closing Prayers: 1 Our Father, 1 Hail Mary and 1 Glory Be. Pray deeply and remember to thank our Lord for graciously hearing and answering your prayer.

Daily Novena Prayer:

Exemplary mother of the Great Augustine, you perseveringly pursued your wayward son, not with wild threats but with prayerful cries to heaven. Intercede for all parents and guardians in our day, so that they may learn to draw their children to God. Teach us to remain close to all God's children, even the prodigal sons and daughters who have sadly gone astray.

Dear St. Monica, troubled wife and mother, many sorrows pierced your heart during your lifetime. Yet, you never despaired or lost faith. With confidence, persistence, and profound faith, you prayed daily for the conversion of your beloved husband and your beloved son, Augustine. Grant me that same fortitude, patience, and trust in the Lord. Intercede for me, dear St. Monica, that God may favorably hear my plea for (names of those prodigals you are praying for) and grant me the grace to accept His will in all things, through Jesus Christ, our Lord, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, One God forever and ever. Amen.

St. Monica, pray for us!

Our next Donut Sunday will be August 21st from 8am-noon in the gym.

To celebrate Deacon Joe O'Donnell's Ordination and first mass, we will also be serving celebratory cake & coffee after the 10am Mass. Please join us to meet and greet our new Deacon Joe!

A poster for the 'undone' retreat. It features a woman with long brown hair, seen from behind, standing in shallow water. She is wearing a white, long-sleeved, button-down shirt. The word 'undone' is written in a large, dark blue, cursive font across the middle. Below it, in smaller capital letters, is 'FREEDOM FOR THE FEMININE HEART'. In the top right corner is the logo for the John Paul II Healing Center, which includes a heart icon and the text 'JOHN PAUL II Healing Center' and 'Transformation in the Heart of the Church'. At the bottom, it says 'OFFERED IN-PERSON OR VIA LIVESTREAM', 'JPIIHEALINGCENTER.ORG', 'Scholarships, student & missionary discounts available!', 'Questions & More Information: JPIIretreatAuroraIL@gmail.com', 'SEPTEMBER 22-24, 2022', 'OUR LADY OF MERCY', and '701 S EOLA RD, AURORA, IL 60504'.
