GROUNDING IN REALITY

If you look up the origins of the word “humility,” you will find that it is related to humus, dirt or earth. Gardeners and farmers know that it is a particularly rich kind of soil, composed by the decay of leaves and other organic material that has fallen on it. Too often we misunderstand it to mean not accepting compliments, relentlessly putting ourselves down, failing to accept our gifts in a positive way. None of this carries with it the meaning of being grounded in reality. Both our limits and our abilities, our grace and even our sin fall upon our lives to enrich us. In their different ways, Sirach and Jesus tell us to accept our lives, to be aware of who we are. Rather than presuming we deserve a higher-up place at the table, we ought to wait to be called to our rightful place, to be blessed with the joy of the righteous.

WHAT HUMILITY IS NOT

It's easy to feel surrounded in our world. We have numerous technological means through which we can receive information (much of it put into circulation unfiltered). Ben Sira, author of the first reading, was in a similar situation: Israel was surrounded by much Greek philosophy and culture in addition to that of their Near-Eastern neighbors and their own. Hard to filter all that out and maintain their grounding in the covenant with God. However, Ben Sira manages to do that much-needed filtering for them, warning his students about pride (the sin of Eden). He promotes humility instead. It is an attitude of courtesy and respect to others, and not a mode of self-abasement. Rather, it refers to an awareness of one's role in the world, offering appropriate respect always, deference only when called for, arrogance never. The mercy of God comes from this humility.

HOW TO BE HUMBLE

Ben Sira concludes that the ears listening to wisdom will rejoice. Jesus has such wisdom to offer today on the topic of humility. Those who hold position or riches would normally presume they were assured a good seat at the table. They are told “step back.” Instead, in the spirit of Ben Sira's lesson on humility, they ought to wait to be invited up. Those schooled in the writings of Ben Sira may have nodded in agreement. Jesus then rips up the etiquette book. Do not to invite family and friends to your table, Jesus says, but welcome those who have no status, those who cannot repay you. In this way, Jesus makes the poor and outcast the ones who actually are able to exalt the humble. Luke's world was as polytheistic and multicultural as Ben Sira's, with plenty of outsiders and unclean folks to go around. Welcome these first, Jesus says, quite literally turning the table on his listeners!

HUMILITY

Today's readings praise the virtue of humility and offer concrete ways for us to become more humble. The Book of Sirach suggests a practical reason for acting with humility: humble people are more likeable than the arrogant. Even God "finds favor" with those who humble themselves. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus provides real-world suggestions for growing in humility and teaches us never to assume we are better than others. His words change our outward behavior and expand our hearts and minds to care about people we might have dismissed before. This practical, almost "folksy" wisdom about humility helps us behave better in daily life and makes our lofty goal of eternal life more accessible. Our reading from Hebrews affirms that heaven is indeed approachable. The personal love and sacrifice of Jesus have opened "the city of the living God" to us. Humility prepares us for paradise.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

God of might, giver of every good gift,
 put into our hearts the love of your name,
 so that, by deepening our sense of reverence,
 you may nurture in us what is good
 and, by your watchful care,
 keep safe what you have nurtured.
 Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you
 in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
 God, for ever and ever.

Reflection question:

Toward what or whom should I have a sense of reverence?

JUST PUNISHMENT

The punishment of the wise who refuse to take part in government is to live under the rule of the foolish.

NO SURPRISES

We are told by all spiritual writers that one important point to bear in mind, as we seek to attain humility, is not to be surprised by our own faults and failures.

THE SIXTH MONTH - AUGUST 25 TO SEPTEMBER 25

Mary now feels the quickening of the Child Jesus that proclaims His presence within her womb. She sings to Him and feels His presence. At six months, a special covering forms to protect the baby's skin from the fetal waters. The baby's eyes, closed since the seventh week, are now open to its surroundings. The infant is now around 14 inches long and weights 1-1/2 pounds. This baby could survive birth.

Despite the fact that a child of six months has a chance at life, women may legally abort their unborn at any time throughout the nine months of their pregnancy.

Ertha Papillon has an inspiring story to tell. For the past 25 years she has dedicated her life to serving the poorest of the poor in the countryside near the small village of Duchity, Haiti. As the founder and director of an orphanage and an elementary school in the mountains of southwest Haiti and as a leader in the faith community of Ste. Marie-

Madeleine Parish, Ertha labors intensely to help countless people who endure both the sufferings of extreme poverty as well as the damaging effects of the earthquake and hurricane that ravaged parts of her country over the past 12 years.

On the weekend of September 10-11, Ertha will be visiting Our Lady of Peace to share at all the Masses about what God has been accomplishing through her charitable outreach since she last visited our faith community back in August 2017. Many positive things have happened in Haiti over the last five years but the struggles of serving in one of the poorest countries on earth remain the same.

To that end, a collection will be taken during each Mass that weekend to benefit Ertha's orphanage and school. If you are not able to attend Mass that weekend but would still like to make a donation, checks can be written to "Our Lady of Peace" with "Haiti-Ertha" in the memo and sent in the mail or dropped off at the church.
